CLERK OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned subscribers to these Articles of Incorporation, natural persons competent to contract, do hereby form a corporation for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation is A.M.P. Court Reporting, Inc.

ARTICLE II

BUSINESS

The general nature of this business or businesses to be transacted by this corporation is:

- 1) Court reporting services and transcription services.
- 2) Any other type of business that the corporation deems profitable.

ARTICLE III

CAPITAL STOCK

The maximum number of shares of stock authorized to be issued by this corporation is 100 (one hundred) shares of capital stock of the par value of $1.00 each, all of which will have the same rights and privileges.

Each share of capital stock shall entitle the holder thereof one vote at any shareholder's meeting and otherwise to participate in all such meetings and in the assets of the corporation. They shall issue for such consideration as may be determined by the Board of Directors, which shall have a value of at least equal to the full par value of such shares. They may be paid for in lawful money of the United States of America, or in property, labor or services.

No holders of shares of any class of stock, now or hereafter authorized, shall have any right as such to purchase, subscribe for or otherwise acquire from the corporation any shares of its stock of any class or any securities convertible into shares of its stock, whether now or hereafter authorized, except such rights as the Board of Directors in its absolute discretion may grant to such holders.

ARTICLE IV

INITIAL CAPITAL

The corporation shall begin business with a paid in capital of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

ARTICLE V

The Board of Directors may from time to time move the principal office to any other address in Florida and the corporation may have other offices at such places as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

Meetings of the shareholders and directors of the corporation, and the place or places for the holding of such meetings may be specified in the by-laws or by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than one or more than three persons who shall be selected in the manner prescribed by law. The exact number of directors may be fixed by the by-laws or by the stockholders. Directors need not be stockholders of the corporation. They shall hold office after their election for a period of one year or until their successors are duly elected and qualified, subject to their removal by the stockholders at any time with or without cause. The Board of Directors shall have complete charge of the business of the corporation and shall have power to elect committees to the Board of Directors and to delegate to them, as well as the officers of the corporation, such powers in the conduct of the corporation's business as may be deemed advisable. The Board of Directors shall have full power to specify conditions upon which stock certificates shall be issued and to replace lost or destroyed certificates by a new issue.

The Board of Directors shall select the officers of the corporation who shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer and such other officers as the Board may be deemed advisable and shall determine the compensation of such officers, including those who may also be Directors. None of these officers are required to be stockholders of the corporation. All such officers shall have such rank and tenure of office, power and other duties as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the Board of Directors by appropriate resolution.
