Dear Mr. Salazar and Ms. Sanchez,

Greetings. I hope you received my letter of October 5, 2009. A copy is enclosed. We've been monitoring the www.sunbiz.org website to see when the name World Business, Inc. is changed to a new name that is acceptable by the state, but it hasn't been changed yet. We learned that the name World International Business, Inc. was rejected by the state because there is a corporation with a similar name.

As we talked about, please create a new name for World Business, Inc., and register the change with the state. We're waiting to register World Business, Inc.

We can communicate better by e-mail. What is your e-mail address?

Best regards,

Kevin Anderson and Associates

Dear Mr. Salazar and Ms. Sanchez,

Thank you for your cooperation in changing the name World Business, Inc. to a new name with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations.

I spoke to a representative in that office, and she said that World International Business, Inc. was rejected because there is a similar name registered - World of International Business, Inc. She sent you a letter advising you of this, and asking you to submit a new name. You may use the same forms by whiting out World International Business, Inc. and writing in a new name, or you may use new forms. As you know, you may check for the availability of names at <http://www.sunbiz.org/corinam.html>. If a name that you want is similar to already registered names, it may not be allowed. You may also call the numbers at http://www.sunbiz.org/corp_dir.html to discuss the availability of names with a representative. Another option is to close World Business, Inc. and register a new name.

We look forward to your changing or closing World Business, Inc., and replacing it with a new name, which will allow us to register it as a corporation. Please update us when the change is made.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Kevin Anderson and Associates
