Whom it may concern:

Due to lengthy stays out of the state and to miss communications between the important individuals involved, this letter notifying us that a problem existed with the filing of the report never got my attention until this past week. Since we filed last year through the internet, we didn't have to sign any documentation. This report was furnished to us, by our tax accountant, and it was not pointed out that a signature was needed. I am sending the copy your office provided back, and it's signed. We are asking that the $400.00 penalty fee be waived due to these unfortunate events. It would be greatly appreciated, and a good lesson has been learned.

Sincerely,
Gary Torres
President
