RE: Incorporation Renewal

Attached is a letter dated July 13, 2005 sent in regards to incorporation renewal for Holy Cow Another Lawn Service, Inc.

An original notice regarding the renewal was never received so the attached letter was sent with the appropriate paperwork for renewal upon receipt.

The check was accidentally left out of the envelope containing the letter and paperwork and sent separately with a letter identifying to what it was to be applied.

I received the included letter stating that the check was received and could not be applied, so the renewal has still not been processed.

Due to this series of circumstances arising originally from not receiving notice of the renewal being due, I do not feel that I should have to pay the $400 late fee.

The fee of $150 for renewal is included along with all of the above indicated back up regarding this issue.

Please call me if there are any problems so it can be resolved immediately.
