2005 Corporate Annual Report

To Whom It May Concern:

Attached with this letter you will find a printed application for our 2005 Annual report and along with a check for the 150.00 dollars.

I am also sending you a copy of the post card that I received this weekend by mail, letting me know about the intent to dissolve. This was my first notice that I received for this particular filing. We open the corporation in mid 2004, and were not aware that this needed to be paid in January.

As you can see the address has changed, As soon as I received this notice I called our attorney and your office and was told to send in a payment immediately with my explanation and ask for a waive to our late fee.

So I am asking you Please if at all possible if our late fee of $ 400.00 could be waived. If you look at our records you will see that we are just about to reach our year mark. This is my first corporation and I truly did not know that this had to be paid in January, Nor did I receive a notice until the postcard arrived.

I appreciate any exemption you can give to this matter.

Sincerely,

Lillian Marciano
