To Whom it may concern:

I believe if you check my track record of paying filing fees, you will find my fees were always paid prior to May 1st. The only reminder I receive every year is a post card, sent annually, reminding me of filing fees. This post card was either not sent to me this year or mistakingly handled as junk mail and discarded. I can assure you, in light of the difficult financial times we are in right now, I certainly cannot afford a filing late fee of $400, when if paid on time, the fee is only $150. My financial picture is unsettled at this time with respect to my appraisal business as well as my personal finances. The ONLY notice I can recollect receiving from the Division of Corporations is a post card with BOLD PRINT "Notice of Intent To Dissolve", in which I acted promptly by paying online the amount of $550.00. The amount of $550.00 I thought was unusually large. If my memory served me right, I recall paying $125 or $150, I couldn't remember as this is a annual bill for me, and easily forgotten in that it is not a monthly, or even a quarterly bill.

I would respectfully request the Annual Reports Section to understand my situation and explanation as to how this fee was overlooked this year, and permit me to receive a refund. I appreciate your time in this matter. If a refund is permitted, the address to forward the refund check is:
