In response to your letter requesting an annual report past due, I was unaware of an annual report filing until I received a notice, to which I responded by phone, and was told to write a letter stating that there was no activity within the corporation as of yet. I did so, and you have sent me a letter stating that though you have received the letter, it is inappropriate.

I began the corporation with the intentions of growing, but one thing after another fell through, so there has not been any activity to speak of. I apologize if I have missed deadlines, but I was truly unaware. Is there any publication I can get that would tell me what type of things I would need to file in the future?

I spoke to a man by the name of Tyrone Scott, and he advised me to write this letter, and ask that you would waive the late fee since I did not receive any notice of a letter due. I humbly ask for your forgiveness in this matter. Mr. Scott advised me to send in a check for the amount of $150.00.

I am enclosing the check, and the completed form which you sent advising me that I had 30 days to avoid administrative dissolution/revocation. I am within that time frame, and would like to keep the corporation, in hopes of building in the future.

Respectfully,

Douglas M. Beck
