Article XIII

In furtherance and not in limitation of the power conferred by statute, the corporation shall have and may exercise the following powers:

1. The corporation shall have the power, if the Bylaws so provide, to hold meetings, both of stockholders and Directors, either within or without the State of Florida, at such places as may from time to time be designed by the Board of Directors.
2. Meetings of the Directors or stockholders may be held upon such notice thereof as may be set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation, subject to any statutory restrictions relative thereto, but any requirement as to notice of such meetings that may be set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation shall not prevent, and nothing herein shall be construed as preventing any stockholder or Director from waiving notice of any meeting in such as may be provided or permitted by the statutes of the State of Florida, and by the Bylaws of this corporation consistent therewith.

3. The number of Directors of the corporation shall be fixed from time to time by the Bylaws, subject to any limitation imposed by the Certificate of Incorporation or any amendment thereto. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors, caused by an increase in the number of Directors, or by death, resignation or other cause, may be filled by the Directors in office, by the affirmative vote of a majority thereof, and the person so chosen to fill any such vacancy shall hold office until the next annual meeting to the stockholders, and until the successor shall have been elected and shall have qualified.
4. The corporation and its Bylaws may confer upon the Directors powers in addition to the foregoing and to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon them by statute.
5. It shall not be necessary for any officer of the corporation, other than the President, to be a Director, or for any officer to be a stockholder.
6. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on such day as may be fixed by the Bylaws of the corporation, and the date of such meeting may be changed from time to time as the Bylaws of the corporation, and the date of such meeting may be changed from time to time as the Bylaws may provide; and the manner of calling meetings of stockholders and Directors shall be fixed by the Bylaws.
7. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereinafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
8. The corporation may use and apply its surplus earnings or accumulated profits authorized by law to be reserved, to the purchase or acquisition of property, and to the purchase or acquisition of its own capital stock from time to time, and to such extent and in such manner, and upon such terms as its Board of Directors shall determine, and to hold the same in its treasury to be thereafter sold, issued, or disposed of when and in such manners as the Board of Directors may deem expedient; and neither such property nor the capital stock taken in the payment of satisfaction of declaration or payment of dividends, unless otherwise determined by a majority of the Board of Directors, or by a majority of the stockholders.
9. None of the objects and powers hereinabove specified and clauses and paragraphs contained in this Article shall in any way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other objects, power, clauses or paragraphs of this Article or any other Article or any other Article in this Certificate, but the objects and powers specified in each paragraph and clause in this Article shall be regarded as independent objects and powers. The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to restrict or limit in any manner the powers of this corporation as may be provided by law or otherwise.

Article XIV

Each Director and officer, in consideration of services, shall be indemnified, whether in office or not, for the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by that person in connection with the defense of, or for advice concerning, any claim asserted or proceeding brought against him by reasons of being or having been an officer of the corporation or Director of the Corporation, whether or not wholly owned or by reasons of any act or omission to act as such Director or officer, provided that the person shall not have been derelict in the performance of the duty as to the matters or matter in respect of which claim is asserted or proceeding brought. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other right to which any Director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.
