Dear Division of Corporations:

I'm sending this letter after receiving a notice of revocation. I called and spoke with Darlen Connell and she explained to me that she had received my letter and check of 150.00 in March 2005 but there was missing information and that I should have received a correction letter. I let her know that I never received a letter of correction. I then was instructed to fill out a reinstatement letter filling in the missing information witch I have now completed thanks to the help of Ms. Connell. Please accept this letter of explanation for my reinstatement.

Sincerely,

James Foley
