- B. Officers need not be shareholders of the Corporation.
- C. All officers shall have rank, tenure if office, powers and duties as may be prescribed by the By-Laws or the Directors by appropriate resolution.

ARTICLE VIII

INCORPORATOR

The name and street address of the person signing these Articles is:

Josef E. Gomez
13625 N. 50th Way #16
Clearwater, FL 33760

ARTICLE IX

INDEMNIFICATION

- A. Right to Indemnification. Except as limited by paragraph B hereinbelow, the Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent authorized by the Florida Business Corporation Act Section 607.0850, Florida Statutes or as such law may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), each director and officer of the Corporation who is or was party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. For purposes of this Article, the term "proceeding" includes any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or other type of proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal and the term "liability" includes obligations to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty of fine (including excise tax assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan), and expenses actually and reasonably incurred to a proceeding. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if he is ultimately found not to be entitled to indemnification by the Corporation. Indemnification and advancement of expenses as provided for in this Article shall continue to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

- B. Exceptions. Indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his action, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitutes:
- (1) A violation of criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.
  - (2) A transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper benefit.
  - (3) In the case of a director, a circumstance under Section 607.0834, Florida Statutes, would subject a director to liability; or
  - (4) Willful misconduct or conscious disregard for the best interests of the Corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.
- C. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director and officer of the Corporation or other enterprise against any liability, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the Florida Business Corporation Act.
- D. Limitation of Director's Liability. A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable for monetary damages to the Corporation or any other person (including shareholder of the Corporation) for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless:

- (1) The director breached or failed to perform his duties as a director; and
- (2) The director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties' constitutes:
  - (i) A violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A judgment or other formal adjudication against a director in any criminal proceeding for a violation of the criminal law estops that director from contesting the fact that his breach, or failure to perform, constitutes a violation of the criminal law; but does not estop the director from establishing that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful;
  - (ii) A transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit;
  - (iii) A circumstance under section 607.0834, Florida Statutes would subject the director to liability;
  - (iv) In a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in right of a shareholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of the Corporation, or willful misconduct; or
  - (v) In a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than the Corporation or a shareholder, recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard or human rights, safety, or property.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Other Offices, Agencies and Branches. The Corporation may have other offices, agencies and branches at such places either within or without the State of Florida as may be determined by the Board of Directors.
- B. Location of Shareholders and Directors Meetings. Meetings of the shareholders and directors of the Corporation may be held at places within or without the State of Florida, and the place or places for the holding of such meetings may be specified in the By-Laws or by the Board of Directors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 14 day of June, 2004.
