According to the Florida Department of State, Division Of Corporations my 2005 annual report has not been processed due to the fact that there was no FEI number. Payment has been received but since there was no FEI number assigned, the report was not processed. I did not receive any letter or other prior notification that there was a problem with my 2005 annual report. Since I did file my annual report in a timely manner and made the necessary payment, I ask the Division of Corporations to please waive any and all late fees that may apply.

Attached you will find a letter from the Department of the Treasury (IRS) that may be relevant to my 2005 annual report not being processed properly. You will also find a 2005 For Profit Corporation Annual Report form completed with my FEI Number included. For the record this is my Document # P04000115731 and FEI # 20-2599129.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you, and thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Paul Cardenas

Dear Jessica Justice,

I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for all your help. Before I spoke to you I had the opportunity to speak to another person who was not as helpful as you were. You were able to provide me all the information I would need to help resolve my situation. You were very pleasant to speak to and patient in helping me gather all the information necessary. I can only hope that I come across more people like you when I need information regarding important issues like this one. Once again, thank you for your professionalism, patience, and kindness.

I would also like to thank you in advance for all your help and cooperation regarding the processing of my 2005 For Profit Corporation Annual Report.

Sincerely,
