686 Charles Pinckney Street
Orange Park, Florida 3207

ARTICLE VII. MISCELLANEOUS

This professional association shall have the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these articles of professional association and any right conferred upon the stockholders is subject to this provision.

Ownership of stock in this professional association shall not be required to make any person eligible to hold office or to become a director in this professional association.

The stockholders, or any two or more of them, may by agreement recorded in the minute book of this professional association impose such restrictions on the sale, transfer or encumbrance of the stock in this professional association owned by the subscribers to such agreement as they may see fit. The by-laws of this professional association may impose any restrictions on the sale, transfer or encumbrance of the stock of this professional association as may be lawful under the statutes and laws of the State of Florida when such by-law is adopted and amended.

Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conclusively deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

Any contract or other transaction between the professional association and one or more of its directors, or between the professional association and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, or between the professional association and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, members, directors, officers, or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the professional association, which acts upon, or in reference to, such contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall, nevertheless, authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by a vote of a majority of the directors present, such interest director or directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not to be counted in calculating the majority necessary to carry such vote. These provisions shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction, which would otherwise be valid under the common law and statutory law applicable thereto.

The Board of Directors is hereby specifically authorized to make provisions for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as Directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. Any director of the professional association may also serve the professional association in any other capacity and receive compensation therefor in any form.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNITY

This professional association is authorized to indemnify any director, officer, or employee, or former director, officer or employee of this professional association, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer or employee of another professional association in which it owns shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suite or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. This professional association may also reimburse to any director, officer, or employee the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding, if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the directors of this professional association not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the interests of this professional association that such settlement be made and that such director, officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such indemnification or reimbursement shall not preclude such director, officer or employee from exercising any rights to which he may be entitled under the by-laws or otherwise.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENT

These articles of professional association may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the stockholders, and approved at a stockholder's meeting by FIFTY (50) PERCENT of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these articles of professional association be made.
