CIVIL DIVISION

2015 JUL 23 P 3 04

CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
JUL 23 2015

JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION

THIS CAUSE was before the Court on July 9, 2015 on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Final Judgment of Dissolution, which was filed on May 11, 2015 and is docket item number 20. By its separate order, the Court has granted this motion.

The Plaintiff's action seeking a judicial dissolution of MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION is the subject of the original complaint and is the subject of Count One of the Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, for which leave to amend was granted on July 9, 2015 by this Court's separate order. The substance of the dissolution action is the same for both the original and amended complaint. Therefore, this judgment is a final judgment with respect to the dissolution of Marianna Airmotive Corporation.

FILED

TALLAHASSEE COUNTY

BK: 7381 PG: 714

It is therefore,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as that:

1. Defendant MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION (herein "Marianna Airmotive") is dissolved effective as of the date of this judgment.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to deliver a certified copy of this judgment to the Department of State.
3. Pursuant to Section 607.1432(1), Florida Statutes, the Court appoints Douglas C. Halford, who shall serve without bond, as Receiver over Marianna Airmotive, in place of its board of directors and officers, and over all of its property wherever located.
4. Immediately upon his filing of an acceptance of this appointment of receivership, the Receiver is vested with possession and control of all of the assets of Marianna Airmotive of every kind and description whatsoever, including all of its bank accounts, its real property, its books and records, its computer or internet passwords, and its other personal property, whether tangible or intangible.
5. The Receiver is empowered to:
  - a. To marshal and dispose of all or any part of the assets of Marianna Airmotive at a public or private sale. The monies received from the sale of its assets, and other monies on hand, shall be retained by the Receiver in a segregated bank account, which is hereby authorized, pending further order of the Court regarding the disposition or distribution of said funds.

- b. To expend Marianna Airmotive's existing monies, without further order of the Court, as reasonably necessary to secure, maintain, insure, and protect its assets pending their disposal.
  - c. To sue and defend in his own name as Receiver of Marianna Airmotive in all courts of this state.
  - d. To exercise all of the powers of Marianna Airmotive to the extent necessary to wind-up and liquidate its business and affairs in such a way that is in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.
  - e. To employ attorneys, accountants, or other persons or professionals, as he deems necessary, to do the acts stated herein. Such professionals or persons shall be compensated from the corporation's funds upon the Receiver's application to and approval by the Court.
6. The Receiver shall forthwith give a written notice, which shall comply with Section 607.1406(2), Florida Statutes, to all known creditors or claimants of the corporation.

7. Upon application to and approval by the Court, the Receiver shall be compensated for his actual time incurred at the hourly rate of $225.00, which shall be paid from the corporation's funds.
8. The Receiver may present this judgment to any law enforcement agency, banking institution, governmental agency, or contracting party, who shall recognize the authority of the Receiver to act in the manner set forth herein.
9. Nothing in this judgment shall prevent the Receiver from moving the Court for a grant of further powers, authority, or direction.
10. The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this judgment and to enter further orders that may be necessary for the complete and proper disposition of the sale of Marianna Airmotive's assets or the monies resulting therefrom, that are stated or contemplated herein, or that are pertaining to the payment of creditors' claims.
11. The Court's jurisdiction is also retained to adjudicate the Plaintiff's claims that are set forth in Count Two of the Amended Complaint.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers in Pensacola, Escambia County,

AMENDED JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION AND ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

This Cause is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Final Judgment of Dissolution which was filed on May 11, 2015 and is docket number 20. By its separate Order, the Court has granted this Motion. It is,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Defendant MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION (herein "Marianna Airmotive") is dissolved effective as of the date of this judgment.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to deliver a certified copy of this judgment to the Department of State.
3. Pursuant to Section 607.1432 of the Florida Statutes, the Court appoints The Halford Company, LLC ("Receiver"), who shall serve without bond, as Receiver of and over Marianna Airmotive, in place of its board of directors and officers, over all of its property wherever located.
4. Immediately upon filing of an acceptance of this appointment Receiver is vested with possession and control of all of the assets of Marianna Airmotive of every kind and description whatsoever, including but not limited to, all of its bank accounts, its real property and fixtures, its equipment, inventory, promissory notes, loan payables, insurance, general intangibles, books and records, its computer or internet passwords and web pages, its contract rights, accounts, goods and all other personal property, whether tangible or intangible, and whether in the possession, custody or control of Marianna Airmotive or a third person or entity.

5. Receiver is empowered to:

a. Marshall and dispose of all or part of the assets of Marianna Airmotive at public or private sale upon such terms as Receiver, in his discretion, deems fair and reasonable. As to those items of tangible personal property located at the principle place of business of Marianna Airmotive that are claimed by the United States Department of Defense or other governmental agency ("DOD"), Receiver shall have authority to surrender such items to the DOD as Receiver, in its discretion, deems advisable, and Receiver, if Receiver so elects, shall have no obligation to pursue recovery of such items or a claim for their value, but Receiver may, if Receiver elects to do so, pursue claims against DOD for any items that have been surrendered but that may be owned by Marianna Airmotive.

b. Compromise and settle all claims by or against Marianna Airmotive upon such terms as Receiver, in its discretion, deems fair and reasonable.

c. Abandon or surrender all assets, including books and records of Marianna Airmotive, that Receiver, in his discretion, deems unduly burdensome or of inconsequential value. In the event Receiver elects to abandon or surrender any real or personal, tangible or intangible property, including books and records, such property may be disposed of by Receiver by any means Receiver deems appropriate.

d. Expend Marianna Airmotive's existing monies and other current assets, as well as any future monies that come into Receiver's possession or control, without further order of the Court, as reasonably necessary to secure, maintain, insure and protect the assets of Marianna Airmotive, to perform the duties of Receiver and to pay any obligations incurred by Receiver in the performance of Receiver's obligations hereunder.

e. Sue and defend in its own name as Receiver of Marianna Airmotive in all courts of this state.

f. Exercise all of the powers of Marianna Airmotive to the extent necessary to wind-up and liquidate the business and affairs of Marianna Airmotive, including completion of any work in progress.

g. Employ attorneys, accountants, agents, servants, employees, guards, clerks, and consultants and to pay the reasonable value of such from the monies of Marianna Airmotive now on hand or hereafter acquired. Receiver may pay such persons or entities from the funds on hand upon such terms and in such amounts as Receiver deems reasonable under the circumstances without further approval from this Court.

h. Execute all documents and perform all acts, either in the name of Mariana Airmotive or in the Receiver's own name, as Receiver, which are necessary or incidental to preserving, protecting, managing, controlling and liquidating the property of Marianna Airmotive.

i. File reports and returns on behalf of Marianna Airmotive that are required by any governmental entity if and to the extent that Receiver is able to obtain adequate records to do so.

j. Provide for storage of those books and records of Marianna Airmotive as Receiver, in its discretion, deems necessary and for such periods and in such a manner as Receiver, in its discretion, deems appropriate under the circumstances.

k. Make provision for discharging liabilities of Marianna Airmotive to the extent funds are available to do so. In doing so, Receiver shall to the extent possible comply with the notice requirements of Sections 607.1406 and 607.1407 of the Florida Statute. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, Receiver shall not be personally liable to any claimant.

6. If sufficient insurance coverage does exist, insurance companies are hereby ordered to name the Receiver as an additional insured on the insurance policy or policies for the period that the Receiver shall be in possession of the property. If there is insufficient insurance coverage, it is ordered that the Receiver shall have thirty (30) working days to procure insurance on the property, providing that the Receiver has funds available to do so, and during that period the Receiver shall not be personally responsible for claims arising or for the procurement of insurance.

7. Receiver shall establish bank accounts for the deposit of monies and funds collected and received in connection with the Receiver's administration of Marianna Airmotive, at any financial institution the Receiver deems appropriate, provided that any funds on deposit at the financial institution are fully insured by an agency of the United States government.

8. Receiver shall take possession of all the books and records of Marianna Airmotive wherever located, as the Receiver deems necessary for the proper administration, management, and control of the receivership.

9. Receiver, or any party to this action may from time to time and on due notice to all parties, make application to this Court for further orders instructing the Receiver.

10. Receiver shall only be liable for intentional misconduct or intentional breach of duty.

11. Receiver shall be entitled to acquire a policy of insurance that covers errors and omissions and other breaches of the duties imposed upon him by this Order and to pay the premiums for such insurance from the monies now or hereafter acquired during the receivership.

12. Marianna Airmotive shall indemnify and hold Receiver harmless from any and all claims, demands, actions and causes of action that arise out of or relate to this receivership, which claims shall be paid from the property of Marianna Airmotive.

13. Receiver shall be entitled to use the existing facilities that are occupied by Marianna Airmotive on Quintette Road, Cantonment, Florida, during the process of winding up and liquidating the property of Marianna Airmotive for a period of not less than 180 days, which period may be extended by the Court for cause shown, after notice to all parties and a hearing.

14. Receiver shall have the right to resign as the Receiver at any time in the future, and from time to time, which resignation shall be effective immediately upon filing of a notice with the Court. If Receiver resigns it will turn over the property in its possession to any successor or to such other person or entity as the Court directs.

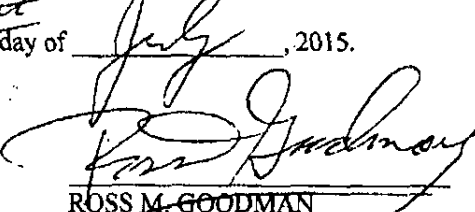

15. The parties have acknowledged that Receiver agreed to accept the duties and responsibilities of this appointment upon the premise Marianna Airmotive has not less than $200,000 in unrestricted and unencumbered monies, which amount is available to enable Receiver to perform its obligations under this Order.

16. Receiver shall file and serve upon the parties and such other parties in interest as requested a copy monthly reports showing the monies received and expended by Receiver during each month of the administration of the receivership. Such reports shall also describe any significant events that have occurred during the reporting period. Such report shall be due no later than the 20th day of the month following the month that is the subject of the report.

17. Receiver shall be entitled to compensation for its services based upon the amount of time spent by Receiver in the performance of its duties as Receiver based upon an hourly rate of $225.00 plus expenses incurred by Receiver. Receiver shall keep a record of the time spent by the Receiver. Receiver may periodically prepare and serve an invoice or statement upon the parties detailing its time and expenses for the relevant period. The parties shall have ten (10) days to object to payment of the amount shown in the invoice. Absent a timely objection, Receiver is authorized to pay its invoice from funds of Marianna Airmotive.

18. Upon the conclusion of this receivership, whether by completion of the process of winding up the affairs of Marianna Airmotive, Receiver shall file a final report and account, including a final fee application for Receiver and any professionals engaged by Receiver.

DONE AND ORDERED this 27th day of July, 2015.

SECOND AMENDED JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION AND ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER

This Cause is before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Final Judgment of Dissolution which was filed on May 11, 2015 and is docket number 20. By its separate Order, the Court has granted this Motion. It is,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that:

1. Defendant MARIANNA AIRMOTIVE CORPORATION (herein "Marianna Airmotive") is dissolved effective as July 23, 2015.
2. The Clerk of Court is directed to deliver a certified copy of this judgment to the Department of State.
3. Pursuant to Section 607.1432 of the Florida Statutes, the Court appoints The Halford Company, LLC ("Receiver"), who shall serve without bond, as Receiver of and over Marianna Airmotive, in place of its board of directors and officers, over all of its property wherever located.
4. Effective July 27, 2015, the Receiver is vested with possession and control of all of the assets of Marianna Airmotive of every kind and description whatsoever, including but not limited to, all of its bank accounts, its real property and fixtures, its equipment, inventory, promissory notes, loan payables, insurance, general intangibles, books and records, its computer or internet passwords and web pages, its contract rights, accounts, goods and all other personal property, whether tangible or intangible, and whether in the possession, custody or control of Marianna Airmotive or a third person or entity.

5. Receiver is empowered to:

a. Marshall and dispose of all or part of the assets of Marianna Airmotive at public or private sale upon such terms as Receiver, in his discretion, deems fair and reasonable. As to those items of tangible personal property located at the principle place of business of Marianna Airmotive that are claimed by the United States Department of Defense or other governmental agency ("DOD"), Receiver shall have authority to surrender such items to the DOD as Receiver, in its discretion, deems advisable, and Receiver, if Receiver so elects, shall have no obligation to pursue recovery of such items or a claim for their value, but Receiver may, if Receiver elects to do so, pursue claims against DOD for any items that have been surrendered but that may be owned by Marianna Airmotive.

b. Compromise and settle all claims by or against Marianna Airmotive upon such terms as Receiver, in its discretion, deems fair and reasonable.

c. Abandon or surrender all assets, including books and records of Marianna Airmotive, that Receiver, in his discretion, deems unduly burdensome or of inconsequential value. In the event Receiver elects to abandon or surrender any real or personal, tangible or intangible property, including books and records, such property may be disposed of by Receiver by any means Receiver deems appropriate.

d. Expend Marianna Airmotive's existing monies and other current assets, as well as any future monies that come into Receiver's possession or control, without further order of the Court, as reasonably necessary to secure, maintain, insure and protect the assets of Marianna Airmotive, to perform the duties of Receiver and to pay any obligations incurred by Receiver in the performance of Receiver's obligations hereunder.

e. Sue and defend in its own name as Receiver of Marianna Airmotive in all courts of this state.

f. Exercise all of the powers of Marianna Airmotive to the extent necessary to wind-up and liquidate the business and affairs of Marianna Airmotive, including completion of any work in progress.

g. Employ attorneys, accountants, agents, servants, employees, guards, clerks, and consultants and to pay the reasonable value of such from the monies of Marianna Airmotive now on hand or hereafter acquired. Receiver may pay such persons or entities from the funds on hand upon such terms and in such amounts as Receiver deems reasonable under the circumstances without further approval from this Court.

h. Execute all documents and perform all acts, either in the name of Mariana Airmotive or in the Receiver's own name, as Receiver, which are necessary or incidental to preserving, protecting, managing, controlling and liquidating the property of Marianna Airmotive.

i. File reports and returns on behalf of Marianna Airmotive that are required by any governmental entity if and to the extent that Receiver is able to obtain adequate records to do so.

j. Provide for storage of those books and records of Marianna Airmotive as Receiver, in its discretion, deems necessary and for such periods and in such a manner as Receiver, in its discretion, deems appropriate under the circumstances.

k. Make provision for discharging liabilities of Marianna Airmotive to the extent funds are available to do so. In doing so, Receiver shall to the extent possible comply with the notice requirements of Sections 607.1406 and 607.1407 of the Florida Statute. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, Receiver shall not be personally liable to any claimant.

6. If sufficient insurance coverage does exist, insurance companies are hereby ordered to name the Receiver as an additional insured on the insurance policy or policies for the period that the Receiver shall be in possession of the property. If there is insufficient insurance coverage, it is ordered that the Receiver shall have thirty (30) working days to procure insurance on the property, providing that the Receiver has funds available to do so, and during that period the Receiver shall not be personally responsible for claims arising or for the procurement of insurance.

7. Receiver shall establish bank accounts for the deposit of monies and funds collected and received in connection with the Receiver's administration of Marianna Airmotive, at any financial institution the Receiver deems appropriate, provided that any funds on deposit at the financial institution are fully insured by an agency of the United States government.

8. Receiver shall take possession of all the books and records of Marianna Airmotive wherever located, as the Receiver deems necessary for the proper administration, management, and control of the receivership.

9. Receiver, or any party to this action may from time to time and on due notice to all parties, make application to this Court for further orders instructing the Receiver.

10. Receiver shall only be liable for intentional misconduct or intentional breach of duty.

11. Receiver shall be entitled to acquire a policy of insurance that covers errors and omissions and other breaches of the duties imposed upon him by this Order and to pay the premiums for such insurance from the monies now or hereafter acquired during the receivership.

12. Marianna Airmotive shall indemnify and hold Receiver harmless from any and all claims, demands, actions and causes of action that arise out of or relate to this receivership, which claims shall be paid from the property of Marianna Airmotive.

13. Receiver shall be entitled to use the existing facilities that are occupied by Marianna Airmotive on Quintette Road, Cantonment, Florida, during the process of winding up and liquidating the property of Marianna Airmotive for a period of not less than 180 days, beginning on July 23, 2015, which period may be extended by the Court for cause shown, after notice to all parties and a hearing.

14. Receiver shall have the right to resign as the Receiver at any time in the future, and from time to time, which resignation shall be effective immediately upon filing of a notice with the Court. If Receiver resigns it will turn over the property in its possession to any successor or to such other person or entity as the Court directs.

15. The parties have acknowledged that Receiver agreed to accept the duties and responsibilities of this appointment upon the premise Marianna Airmotive has not less than $200,000 in unrestricted and unencumbered monies, which amount is available to enable Receiver to perform its obligations under this Order.

16. Receiver shall file and serve upon the parties and such other parties in interest as requested a copy monthly reports showing the monies received and expended by Receiver during each month of the administration of the receivership. Such reports shall also describe any significant events that have occurred during the reporting period. Such report shall be due no later than the 20th day of the month following the month that is the subject of the report.

17. Receiver shall be entitled to compensation for its services based upon the amount of time spent by Receiver in the performance of its duties as Receiver based upon an hourly rate of $225.00 plus expenses incurred by Receiver. Receiver shall keep a record of the time spent by the Receiver. Receiver may periodically prepare and serve an invoice or statement upon the parties detailing its time and expenses for the relevant period. The parties shall have ten (10) days to object to payment of the amount shown in the invoice. Absent a timely objection, Receiver is authorized to pay its invoice from funds of Marianna Airmotive.

18. Upon the conclusion of this receivership, whether by completion of the process of winding up the affairs of Marianna Airmotive, Receiver shall file a final report and account, including a final fee application for Receiver and any professionals engaged by Receiver.

19. The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this judgment and to enter further orders that may be necessary for the complete and proper disposition of the sale of Marianna Airmotive's assets or the monies resulting therefrom, that are stated or contemplated herein, or that are pertaining to the payment of creditors' claims.

20. The Court's jurisdiction is also retained to adjudicate the Plaintiff's claims that are set forth in Count Two of the Amended Complaint.

DONE AND ORDERED this 17th day of August, 2015.
