To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in response to my returned check from you, accompanied by the enclosed letter. I called your office on receipt of this letter and was instructed to send this explanation and return the $150.00 check with the annual report.

I did unfortunately miss the filing deadline. I did not receive the renewal postcard in the mail. This normally would have been corrected by April 15th when I file my personal taxes. However, my accountant needed extra time for preparation and so filed for an extension with my approval. This led to the missed deadline.

I request a waiver of the $400.00 late fee, as I did not receive the reminder postcard. When I spoke with the person by phone at your office, I verified that you have my correct mailing address. Hopefully this will resolve the problem.

Thank You,
