Dear Sirs:

I am a new business owner. I've been in business for a short time. I have been paying all of my business related expenses as they come in.

I now received a bill for $550 and I have never heard of such an expense for profit corporation annual report. It's news to me. I then called someone from your office and asked about why I needed to pay $550. He said that I should have received a card in the mail in May. I never received this card.

He then told me that all I had to do was write this letter and send a check for $150. Now I would rather have paid $150 versus $550. If I had gotten this card in May I would definitely paid this bill, as I have been paying all other bills when due. Here is my $150 check. Can someone let me know if this is OK and if I am current in what I owe to the state of Florida. Thank you very much.

Ken Josephson
