Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed is an original and one copy of the subject proposed Articles of Incorporation for Evolution Imports, Inc. along with a check for $78.75 to cover the processing costs.

Previously I formed Evolution Imports, LLC that was administratively dissolved due to lack of annual report. I did not renew because I wanted to form a new, domestic corporation with same name. Although the name is considered to be unavailable, I believe that in my case it is available since I am the same owner.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Adam Burdette, Subscriber

Adam Burdette	322 E. Central Ave. Orlando, FL 32801

ARTICLE VIII MANAGEMENT

- a) Until the election of the Board of Directors, the Incorporator shall direct the affairs and organizations of the corporation, and may take all steps that may be proper to perfect such organization, including the election of directors. Thereafter, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors whose number (which shall not be less than two) and manner of election shall be determined by the by-laws of the corporation. The Directors need not be Stockholders, and shall hold office from the time of their election of qualification until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. A majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except that the by-laws may provide that not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of Directors, and in no event fewer than two Directors may constitute quorum.
- b) The Board of Directors may, by Resolution adopted by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees, to consist of two ( 2 ) or more Directors which shall to the extent that may be designated in the Resolution, or in the by-laws, have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Directors (other than the power to remove or elect Statutory Officers) in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, and may authorize the use of the seals to the corporation whenever necessary.
- c) Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held outside of the State of Florida.
- d) The Officers of the corporation shall be the President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, who shall be chosen by the Directors and who shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualified. The President shall be chosen from among the Directors. Any two officers (other than President and Secretary) may be held by the same person. The corporation may have such Officers and Agents as are appropriate, who shall be chosen in such manner and hold their offices for such terms and upon such conditions as may be prescribed by the by-laws or determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate to any person within the corporation the power to select, appoint, employ, discharge, and fix the terms and conditions of employment and salaries or compensation of any person not holding corporate office.

ARTICLE IX PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

Every shareholder of this corporation shall have the right to purchase shares of the same kind, class or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued, including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding, exclusive of treasury shares. This right shall be deemed waived by any stockholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares pre-empted within 30 days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation.
