Dear Ms. Williams:

Per our conversation on Friday, July 9, 2010, this correspondence serves to reiterate the circumstances regarding the filing of my 2010 Annual Report. The report was filed online on April 25, 2010. When I got to the end and entered my credit card information and clicked the submit button, it indicated that the "Pay Now" button should only be clicked one time and that the order was being processed (see enclosure)!! To reiterate, I did everything that could have been expected of me including follow up with your office on April 28, 2010 BEFORE the May 1, 2010 filing deadline!! At that time, I was told I was good to go and that everything regarding the filing was okay. I should not be held accountable for glitches that may have occurred on your end as I am a small business owner and a matter like this (pay an unwarranted $400 late fee) could certainly put me out of business and into the public assistance/unemployment lines which would serve to be counterproductive to both myself and the State of Florida. Per your instructions, I have re-filed the report and printed the voucher to pay by check in the revised amount of $150 (see enclosures). Thank you for the favorable reconsideration of the matter.

Sincerely,

Marcia Oban
