ARTICLE VIII – TERM

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE IX – ADDRESS

The Board of Directors may from time to time move the principal office for the following corporation to any place in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE X – NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

This corporation shall have one director initially. The number of directors may be either increased or diminished from time to time by unanimous vote by the Board of Directors, but shall never be less than one, and shall never be more than nine.

ARTICLE XI – PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS FOR SHAREHOLDERS

All shareholders of stock in the corporation shall have preemptive rights.

ARTICLE XII – MISCELLANEOUS

The Miscellaneous provisions are as follows:

(a). This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these articles of incorporation, and any right conferred upon the stockholders is subject to this reservation.

(b). The initial by-laws of this corporation shall be adopted by the directors. The by-laws may be amended from time to time by either the stockholders or the directors, but the directors may not alter or amend any by-law adopted by the stockholders.

(c). Ownership of stock shall not be required to make any person eligible to hold office either as an officer or director of this corporation.

(d). The stockholders may, by by-law provision or by stockholders' agreements, recorded in the minute book, impose such restrictions on the sale, transfer or encumbrance of the stock of this corporation as they may see fit.

(e). Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall conclusively be deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

(f). Any contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and any firm of which one or more of its directors are members or employees, or in which they are interested, or between the corporation and any corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, members, directors, officers, or employees, or in which they are interested, shall be valid for all purposes, notwithstanding the presence of such director or directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation, which acts upon, or in reference to, such contract or transaction, and notwithstanding his or their participation in such action, if the fact of such interest shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall, nevertheless, authorize, approve and ratify such contract or transaction by a vote of a majority of the directors present, such interested director or directors to be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, but not to be counted in calculating the majority necessary to carry such vote. This section shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or other transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common and statutory law applicable thereto.

(h). The Board of Directors is hereby specifically authorized to make provision for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as Directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. Any director of the corporation may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefore in any form.

ARTICLE XIII - COMPENSATION

The corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, or employee, or former director, officer, or employee of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer, or employee of another corporation in which is owned shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. The corporation may also reimburse to any director, officer or employee the reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit, or proceeding, if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the directors, not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the best interests of the corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer, or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders, or otherwise this.
