Attn: Re- in statements

To: Whom this may concern,

This is a letter that we were asked to send in to you. Last year we had a check that had bounced before I started to work for this company. Come to find out the girl prior to me was steeling money from the company and hiding a lot of things. I asked how we would be able to get things straightened out. I was told to go ahead and send in the money for the bad check and also send in for the new year which would have been a total of $315.00 dollars which I sent in to 2661 Executive Center in 2 day Federal Express mail. Back on 3/16/06. Since then which I know is not your problem I left on maternity leave. With a temp working here. Since being back discovered that you never received my letter that I sent you with the check, and all of us thinking everything was alright and we were incorporated. Come to find out we have not this whole time.

So what I am asking is please understand and except our check for $315.00 which I thought you received months ago.

Thank You Very Much,

Katrina D. Hart
