Re: Hot Doggies, Inc.
Document No.: P04000146683

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to request forgiveness of the late fee regarding our filing of the '2006 For Profit Corporation Annual Report.' For the past few months, my family has undergone extreme hardships and the filing deadline date of May 1, 2006 inadvertently passed.

During the past two months, my mother and aunt (ages 90 and 94) were each diagnosed with serious illnesses while living in Miami. Not only did we have to make the 6 hour drive from our house to theirs each week, but during those weekly trips we made numerous trips to cardiac and cancer specialists. We also had to close up and sell both of their homes which each contained 70 years worth of 'stuff.' Additionally, we had to make additions to our home to make space for two elderly, handicapped people to move in and then start all over with 'introductory' new-doctor appointments and treatments (still ongoing).

Not to mention that during the last two months my husband has been diagnosed with a condition which is robbing him of his eyesight, as well as emphysema and a bone condition which caused him to lose all his upper teeth.

As you can see, this has been an unbelievable last several months, and our priorities were such that we just didn't realize that the filing deadline was approaching and passed. We would ask you to please take these personal hardships into consideration and forgive the late filing fee.

Thank you for your anticipated understanding and courtesy regarding the foregoing.

Sincerely,

Nancy McMahon,
Hot Doggies, Inc.
Vice-President/ Treasurer/ Secretary
