Dear Document Specialist.

Opportunities become successes when action is taken. Recently, I sent a letter expressing interest in resolving this situation we have send every time what you have requestd we have prove our potential and will to collaborate with you. I saw the beginning of a mutually beneficial relationship to take care of European Financial payment of Corporate dues. To date, I have not had a reply and am curious as to whether my correspondence dated s was received.

Together, we could create the newest American legend, much like Mom, apple pie, and baseball. We have stepped up to the plate and are ready to play ball. Thank you in advance for your professional courtesy. I am waiting for to enter the field by telephoning and expressing interest in discussing the matter.

Sincerely yours,

Securities effort to have the state received the Payment of Corporate yearly Fees. The contradictions are obvious to anyone who as much as glances at Check' and mail.

Therefore, we have no choice but request a full reinstatement and acceptance of the $ 550.00. I suggest that some one may investigate the displeasure caused by this unfortunate situation. It may yield results that will benefit future customer relationships.

Sincerely yours

Letter, received by Cosmopolitan Insurance

From: Document Specialist's Tyrone Scott on July 2005, Tina Roberts on September 2005. And letters send on October with the last check.

Also the letter dated December 2, 2005 with a check $ 550.00 on today's date.

Dear Mrs. Hood:

Many companies fear the automatic system's increasing interference in commercial enterprise. Yet, there is no reason for apprehension when business practices are fair and in compliance with existing agreements. Much to our dismay, European Financial Services has been forced to question the same automatic systems of the Florida Department of State's adherence to the recite of checks send for payment of there dues and written commitments.

European Financial Service's recently call to inquire on the whereabouts of the third check send with letter and copy's of previously send correspondence and checks to pay for the corporate dues. The response was not clear and we like the State of Florida to take fourth look in consideration ;our action to try and resolve these misunderstanding, have being going on unanswered , Check's were return twice and the one that was send on September from our office was send back and received by our office on 10/03/05. We send a third check that has not reached your office. Is for that same reason that we are sending this notification Via Express Mail. As clearly stated within European Financial
