To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter and re-instatement form, as well as my $150 payment, for Too Good To Be New, Inc.'s 2005 annual report filing.

During a recent meeting with my accountant, she asked if I had filed the annual report, and this being my first year in business, and I not having received any notice to do so in the mail, I didn't know to complete the filing. I apologize for this oversight.

I spoke with a representative from your office this morning, who instructed me to print the enclosed form, as well as to enclose the $150 payment (because I did not receive notice, she said that the payment amount was not the $750 as stated on your form).

Because this letter is postmarked by the end of the year, and because I have included payment and the form, I hope that this will preclude me from any further action. If there are any problems, please contact me:
