Attention: Michelle Michigan, Document Specialist Supervisor

Dear Mr. Michigan:

This letter is regarding the Annual Report from my restaurant, I tried to file online many times, but it did not accept my credit card. I called your office and a customer service representative told me that because everybody was trying to use the online payment at the last minute, the website was not working properly. She suggested that I send the payment by mail.

After sending a check on May, I received a notification from you on June, telling me that you did not find a document from my corporation and gave me 30 days to send you the 2007 annual report. Unfortunately, I picked up my mail late and the time frame was expired. Because I opened my business last March, and I have been struggling with all my bills, I would like to know it is possible to skip the $400.00 fee.

If you have any questions, please call me at (321) 4092872

Thank you very much,

Rafael Prandy
