To whom this may concern:

I wanted to take a few moments and apologize for sending our payment in after the May 1st due date. I believe I have a legitimate reason for the delay in payment and request your support to waive the penalty fee. I suffered an injury several months ago and was hospitalized for an extended period of time. The injury was a huge blow to the company and almost put us out of business. I am excited to say that we are currently stabilizing and the future looks promising.

Thank you kindly for understanding this matter and processing the enclosed check.

Best regards,

Eric L. Zaves
