ARTICLE X. CUMULATIVE VOTING FOR DIRECTORS

There shall be no cumulative voting for directors.

ARTICLE XI. BOARD VACANCIES

Any vacancy of the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of the remaining directors. Any director so elected shall serve until the director's successor has been elected and qualified.

ARTICLE XII. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall have the power to indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person who is made, or is threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or a fiduciary within the meaning of the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974, as amended, with respect to any employee benefit plans of the corporation, or serves at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent, or as a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, and their respective heirs, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns. Indemnification specifically provided by the Florida Business Corporation Act shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights by which such director, officer, employee or agent may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. The corporation, its officers, directors, employees or agents shall be fully protected in taking any action or making any payment under this Article or in refusing to do so upon the advice of independent council.

ARTICLE XIII. NO PERSONAL LIABILITY

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages of conduct as a director, except that this provision shall not apply to (a) Any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders; (b) Any acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) Any distribution which is unlawful; (d) Any transaction from which the director derived improper personal benefit; or (e) Any act or omission occurring prior to the date on which these Articles of Incorporation are filed with the Secretary of State.
