ARTICLE XIII

POWERS OF CORPORATION

This corporation shall have the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary to carry out its business and affairs, subject to any limitations or restrictions imposed by applicable law or these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE XIV

REGISTERED OWNER(S)

This corporation, to the extent permitted by law, shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share or right is registered on the books of this corporation as the owner thereto, for all purposes, and except as may be agreed in writing by this corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share or right on the part of any person, whether or not this corporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE XV

INDEMNIFICATION

This corporation shall indemnify a director or officer of this corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of this corporation against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding. This corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this corporation against liability, if authorized, in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the Board of Directors, that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the Board of Directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, officers, employees and agents of this corporation shall apply when such person(s) are serving at this corporation's request while a director, officer, employee or agent of this corporation, as the case may be, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with this corporation. This corporation also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent of this corporation who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. This corporation also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee or agent of this corporation, whether or not this corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All references in these Articles of Incorporation are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of this corporation or the ability of this corporation otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, notification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. All references in these Articles of Incorporation to "director", "officer", "employee", and "agent" shall include the heirs, estates, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such persons.
