ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF SECURITY INNOVATION, INC.

(H08000145350 3)

The undersigned submits to the Florida Secretary of State these Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Security Innovation, Inc., in accordance with Section 607.1006 and Section 607.10025, Florida Statutes.

A. The name of the corporation is Security Innovation, Inc.

B. These Articles of Amendment were adopted on the 31st day of May, 2008 by the board of directors of the Corporation without shareholder action. Shareholder approval of the amendments to the Articles of Incorporation herein contained is not required pursuant to Section 607.10025, Florida Statutes.

C. Article VI of the Articles of Incorporation is amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE VI – CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The total number of shares which the Corporation authorized to issue is 300,000 shares of which 200,000 shall be designated as common shares, having no par value ("Common Shares") and 100,000 shall be designated as preferred shares ("Preferred Shares").

D. Article XVI of the Articles of Incorporation is amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE XVI – CLASS A PREFERRED SHARES

Class A Preferred Shares shall have a stated value of thirty dollars ($30.00) per share (the "Class A Stated Value"). All Class A Preferred Shares shall be identical and shall entitle the holders thereof to the same rights and privileges. The Board of Directors may issue up to thirteen thousand (13,000) Class A Preferred Shares.

When, as and if dividends are declared by the Board of Directors, whether payable in cash, in property or in securities of the Corporation, the holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive, prior to the payment of any dividends on Common Shares, the cumulative amount of thirty dollars ($30.00) per share (the "Class A Preferred Dividend") of Class A Preferred Shares. In the event dividends declared by the Board of Directors are insufficient to pay the entire amount of the Class A Preferred Dividend, the holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be paid all dividends until each holder of Class A Preferred Shares receives the entire amount of the Class A Preferred Dividend. The Class A Preferred Dividend is a one-time preferential dividend and not an annual amount. After each holder of Class A Preferred Shares has received dividends in the cumulative amount of the Class A Preferred Dividend, the holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be entitled to share equally in and to receive, in accordance with the number of Class A Preferred Shares and Common Shares held by the holders thereof, all such dividends which exceed the amount of the Class A Preferred Dividend.

Dividends payable under this Article XV shall be paid to the holders of record of the outstanding Class A Preferred Shares as their names shall appear on the stock register of the Corporation on the record date fixed by the Board of Directors in advance of the declaration and payment of each dividend.

The Corporation shall not in any manner subdivide (by any stock split, reclassification, stock dividend, recapitalization or otherwise) or combine the outstanding shares of either Common Shares or Class A Preferred Shares without at the same time making a proportionate subdivision or combination of shares of all such classes; except that any dividends paid in shares shall be paid in Common Shares. The Corporation shall not issue fractions of Common Shares in payment of such dividend but shall issue a whole number of shares to such holder of Class A Preferred Shares rounded up or down, in the Corporation's sole discretion, to the nearest whole number, without compensation to any stockholder whose fractional share has been rounded down or from any stockholder whose fractional share has been rounded up.

Each holder of Class A Preferred Shares shall be entitled to one vote for each share of such stock issued and outstanding and registered to such holder's name and shall vote with the holders of Common Shares, as a single class, except that holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be entitled to vote as a class upon such matters and in such manner as may be provided in these Articles of Incorporation and Chapter 607, Florida Statutes.

Holders of issued and outstanding Class A Preferred Shares shall have preference over Common Shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the Corporation but only to the extent that holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be paid the Class A Stated Value, prior to any distribution being made to holders of Common Shares, except the amount to be paid holders of Class A Preferred Shares on liquidation of the Corporation shall be reduced by the amount of dividends not exceeding the Class A Preferred Dividend paid to holders of

Class A Preferred Shares prior to liquidation. In the event proceeds payable on liquidation of the Corporation shall be insufficient to pay holders of Class A Preferred Shares the entire Class A Stated Value (as reduced by dividends previously paid), such holders shall be paid the entire amount of such liquidation proceeds. After holders of Class A Preferred Shares have received the stated value of their shares from liquidation of the Corporation (as reduced by dividends previously paid), holders of Class A Preferred Shares and Common Shares shall share equally in the remaining liquidation proceeds in accordance with the number of Class A Preferred Shares and Common Shares held by each such holder.

In the event the Corporation shall issue Common Shares for a price of less than thirty dollars ($30.00) per share (including Common Shares issued upon exercise of a convertible debt instrument or of a warrant or option, other than an option granted pursuant to a stock option plan adopted for the benefit of employees of the Corporation) or issue any additional class or series of Preferred Shares which has an Effective Price (as hereinafter defined) of less than thirty dollars ($30.00) per share and which participates in the payment of dividends or the payment of liquidation proceeds with Common Shares after the payment of preferred dividends and liquidation preferences, holders of Class A Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive liquidation proceeds (after payment of the Class A Stated Value) in participation with Common Shares on a per share basis in an amount which equals the product of the amount received by each Common Share and the result of dividing thirty dollars ($30.00) the lesser of the issue price of Common Shares (at the lowest price of issue) of any Common Shares or by the Effective Price of Preferred Shares, if any. The Effective Price of Preferred Shares shall equal the lesser of the amount of the liquidation preference of such Preferred Shares or, if such Preferred Shares are convertible into Common Shares, the result of dividing the liquidation preference of such Preferred Shares by the number of Common Shares into which such Preferred Shares are convertible.

E. Upon the effective date of these Articles of Amendment, each issued and outstanding share of Class A Common Shares shall be combined into .01 Class A Common Share. Fractional parts of a share shall be rounded to the nearest whole share. Fractional shares may not be redeemed for cash.

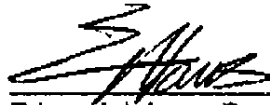

F. Upon the effective date of these Articles of Amendment, each issued and outstanding share of Class B Common Shares shall be converted and combined into .01 share of Class B Common Shares. Fractional parts of a share shall be rounded to the nearest whole share. Fractional shares may not be redeemed for cash.

G. Upon the effective date of these Articles of Amendment, each issued and outstanding share of Class A Preferred Shares is converted to .01 share of Class A Preferred Shares. Fractional parts of a share shall be rounded to the nearest whole share. Fractional shares may not be redeemed for cash.

H. The amendments to the Articles of Incorporation contained herein do not adversely affect the rights or preferences of the holders of outstanding shares of any class or series of the capital stock of the corporation and does not result in the percentage of authorized shares that remain unissued after the division or combination exceeding the percentage of authorized shares that were unissued before the division or combination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Amendment on the 4th day of June, 2008.

Edward Adams, President
