To Whom It May Concern:

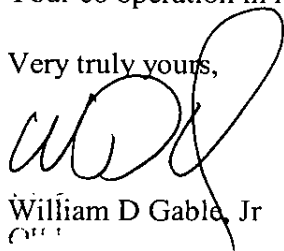

On or about June 6, 2006 our above referenced client received correspondence from your office concerning a missing Federal Employer Identification (FEI) number. A copy of your correspondence is enclosed. Our client brought the correspondence to our office and we filled in the missing FEI and returned the document to your office. Our records indicate that we mailed the completed form on June 13, 2006, a copy of which is enclosed. The check for the annual filing was cashed by the Division of Corporations.

On February 6, 2007 our client brought your most recent correspondence to our office, a copy of which is enclosed. It now appears that the corporation has been administratively dissolved, when in fact it complied with the requests of the Department last June. In addition the Department has now returned the 2007 filing and the taxpayers remittance, indicating that reinstatement fees are now due.

We are respectfully requesting that the Division of Corporations reinstate Country Fox Lawn Service Inc as the corporation has filed all the required annual filings and paid the fees timely. In addition the 2007 filing is being returned with the $150.00 filing fee for renewal in 2007.

Your co operation in resolving this matter will be appreciated the taxpayer.

Very truly yours,

William D Gable, Jr
