To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter because I received your Notice of Intent to Dissolve. I sent in my annual report and payment on April 20, 2008 . See copy attached.

I do not know what happen to it and I have checked my bank and it has not been returned to me. I did not know that it was not paid until I received your notice.

Please accept my replacement check. I hope you will not charge me a late fee as my business is not doing very well due to the economy, and your not receiving the first check was beyond my control.

Thank you in advance,

Alfred Greco
