Dear Division of Corporations,

Subject: Late fee for 2006 Annual Report

I am compelled to explain that there has been a myriad of problems with my accounting and finance this past year; which was also my first year of business, that have led to the need to file an extension for the 2005 tax year as well as other delays in prompt processing of several reports including my 2006 Annual Report.

My first bookkeeper, Carol Bush failed to reappear in October of last year after 5 months of erroneous bookkeeping practices. Shortly after, the next bookkeeper came, Phyllis Harper, she pronounced that the errors from the past bookkeeper were now corrected. Only when I submitted it to an accountant did I find out that she was no better than the first when it came to bizarre bookkeeping practices.

My current accounting firm, Linder & Thornley, referred me to another bookkeeper, Laura Kelly. She was able to fix the errors, but in late April 2006 had to go in for an emergency surgery that kept her off her feet and away from my business matters for an extended period of time. Thus, the extension, thus the late report.

I respectfully ask that you consider waiving the $400.00 late fee for filing my 2006 Annual Corporation Report.

Sincerely,

Laurie Samulonis
President
