ARTICLE VIII.
INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by the Florida law as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended, a director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or any of its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Florida Statutes Section 607.0834, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived any improper personal benefit. If, after approval by the stockholders of this Article VIII, the Florida Business Corporation Act ("FBCA") is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the FBCA, as so amended.

The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the Corporation and may indemnify any other person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that the person did not have reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Any amendment, repeal or modification of this Article VIII or any provision of these Articles of Incorporation (including the adoption of any new provision), inconsistent with this Article VIII shall be prospective only, and shall not apply to or adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer, agent, or other person existing at the time of such amendment, repeal, modification or adoption or increase the liability of any director of the Corporation with respect to any acts or omissions of such director, officer, agent or other person occurring prior to such amendment, repeal or modification or adoption.

ARTICLE IX.
AMENDMENT

This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon the shareholders is subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE X.
BYLAWS

The initial Bylaws shall be adopted by the Board of Directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws is vested in the Board of Directors, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders.

ARTICLE XI.
INFORMAL SHAREHOLDER ACTION

The holders of not less than a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the voting stock of the corporation may act by written agreement without a meeting, as provided in Florida Statutes 607.0704 and the Bylaws.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned executes these Articles of Incorporation this 10th day of February, 2005.

Peter S. Warhurst,
INCORPORATOR/REGISTERED AGENT
