ARTICLE II

STATE OF ORGANIZATION

SECTION 2.1. State of Organization. The Corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA").

ARTICLE III

SHARES OF STOCK

SECTION 3.1. Authorized Shares. The Corporation is authorized to issue three classes of shares designated "Common Stock", "Preferred Stock" and "Excess Stock", respectively, no par value per share. The total number of shares which this Corporation shall have authority to issue is Thirty Thousand (30,000). The number of shares of Common Stock authorized to be issued is Ten Thousand (10,000), the number of shares of Preferred Stock authorized to be issued is Ten Thousand (10,000) and the number of shares of Excess Stock authorized to be issued is Ten Thousand (10,000). The rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to and imposed upon the Common Stock, Preferred Stock and the Excess Stock are set forth below in this Article III.

SECTION 3.2. Common Stock. The following is a description of the dividend and voting rights and the rights upon liquidation of the Corporation's Common Stock:

(a) The holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, out of the assets of the Corporation which are by law available therefor, dividends or distributions payable in cash, in property or in securities of the Corporation, subject to the dividends payable to the holders of Preferred Stock.

(b) The holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters (for which holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote thereon) at all meetings of the shareholders of the Corporation and shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock entitled to vote at such meeting.

(c) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation, each holder of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, ratably with each other holder of Common Stock and Excess Stock, that portion of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its shareholders as the number of shares of Common Stock held by such holder bears to the total number of shares of Common Stock and Excess Stock then outstanding, subject to the Liquidation Preference of the holders of Preferred Stock.

SECTION 3.3 Preferred Stock. The preferences, limitations and relative rights of the Preferred Stock are as set forth below.

(a) The holders of shares of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, out of the assets of the Corporation which are by law available therefor, cash dividends at a rate of six percent (6.0%), or $45.00, per annum in preference and in priority over dividends upon the Common Stock. Dividends on each share of Preferred Stock shall accumulate, whether or not earned or declared, from the date of issuance. Any accumulation of dividends on the Preferred Stock shall not bear interest. The term "accumulated dividends" as used herein shall mean accrued and unpaid dividends on the Preferred Stock. The holders of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any dividends other than the cash dividends provided for in this Section 3.3(a). No dividend or other distribution shall be declared or paid on the Common Stock if (i) the Corporation has failed to pay an annual dividend on the Preferred Stock for the current or any preceding year, or (ii) after giving effect to such dividend or distribution, the Corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the Corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the dividend or other distribution, to satisfy the aggregate Liquidation Preference of the outstanding Preferred Stock as provided for in Section 3.3(c) and the aggregate Excess Stock Liquidation Preference of the outstanding Excess Stock provided for in Section 3.4(c).

(b) The holders of shares of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to vote on any matters (except as required by law).

(c) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, each holder of shares of Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Corporation, before any payment or declaration and setting apart for payment of any amount shall be made in respect of the Common Stock or Excess Stock, an amount equal to $750 per share, plus an amount per share equal to all declared but unpaid dividends thereon (the "Liquidation Preference"). If upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets to be distributed to the holders of the Preferred Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment of the Liquidation Preference, then all of the net assets of the Corporation, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation, available for distribution to the Corporation's shareholders shall be distributed ratably (per share) to the holders of the Preferred Stock. After payment in full of the Liquidation Preference, the holders of the Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to participate with the holders of the Common Stock or Excess Stock in the distribution of any remaining net assets of the Corporation.

SECTION 3.4 Excess Stock. The following is a description of the dividend and voting rights and the rights upon liquidation of the Corporation's Excess Stock:

(a) Excess Stock shall not be entitled to any dividends. Any dividend or distribution paid prior to the discovery by the Corporation that the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock have been converted into Excess Stock shall be repaid to the Corporation upon demand.

(b) The holders of shares of Excess Stock shall not be entitled to vote on any matters (except as required by law) and shall have no rights to receive notice of any meetings (except as required by law).

(c) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation, after payment to the holders of the Preferred Stock of any preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or in any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation, each holder of shares of Excess stock shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to $1.00 per share, plus an amount per share equal to all declared but unpaid dividends thereon (the "Excess Stock Liquidation Preference"). If upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets to be distributed in respect of the shares of Excess Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment of the Excess Stock Liquidation Preference, then all of the net assets of the Corporation, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation, including any preference on distributions of the Preferred Stock, available for distribution to the Corporation's shareholders should be distributed ratably (per share) in respect of the Excess Stock. After payment in full of the Excess Stock Liquidation Preference, holders of the Excess Stock shall not be entitled to participate with the holders of the Common Stock in the distribution of any remaining net assets of the Corporation. The Corporation, as holder of the Excess Stock in trust, or if the Corporation shall have been dissolved, any trustee appointed by the Corporation prior to its dissolution shall distribute ratably to the beneficiaries of the trust, when determined, the Excess Stock Liquidation Preference.

SECTION 3.5. Certificates. The Board of Directors in its discretion may authorize the issue of the Corporation's shares, regardless of class, with or without certificates.

SECTION 3.6. Procedures for Transfer of Common Stock and Preferred Stock. Any Person who acquires or attempts to acquire shares in violation of Section 3.7, or any Person who is a transferee such that Excess Stock results under Section 3.8, shall immediately give written notice to the Corporation of such event and shall file with the Corporation an affidavit setting forth the number of shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock (1) directly owned, (2) Constructively Owned, and (3) Beneficially owned by the Person filing the affidavit. The affidavit to be filed with the Corporation shall set forth all information required to be reported in returns filed by Shareholders under Treasury Regulation Section 1.857-9 issued under the Code or similar provisions of any successor regulation. In any event, the affidavit, or an amendment thereto, shall be filed with the Corporation within 10 days after demand therefor and at least 15 days prior to any Transfer which would violate Section 3.7, or result in Excess Stock under Section 3.8. Such person shall provide any other information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such event on the Corporation's status as a REIT.

SECTION 3.7. Transfer Restrictions.

(a) "100 Shareholders" Restriction. Any Transfer that, if effective, would result in the Common Stock and Preferred Stock being beneficially owned by less than 100 Persons (determined without reference to any rules of attribution) shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which would be otherwise beneficially owned by the transferee; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(b) "Closely Held" Restriction. Any Transfer that, if effective, would result in the Corporation being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which would cause the Corporation to be "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(c) "Domestically Controlled" Restriction. Any Transfer that, if effective, would result in the Corporation not being a "domestically-controlled REIT" within the meaning of Section 897(h)(4)(B) of the Code shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which would cause the Corporation to not be a "domestically-controlled REIT" within the meaning of Section 897(h)(4)(B) of the Code; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(d) General REIT Preservation Restriction. Any Transfer that, if effective, would result in the termination of the status of the Corporation as a real estate investment trust under the REIT Provisions of the Code shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which would result in the termination of the status of the Corporation as a real estate investment trust under the REIT Provisions of the Code; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(e) Right of First Refusal. Bank of Pensacola (the "Bank") shall have a right of first refusal with respect to any proposed Transfer of Preferred Stock. The specific terms of such right shall be set forth in an agreement to be entered into by the Bank and each holder of Preferred Stock, with each intended transferee being required to enter into such agreement in order for a Transfer to be effective. Any Transfer as to which the Bank has not waived its right of first refusal, or any Transfer in which the intended transferee has not signed the agreement described above, shall be void ab initio and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Preferred Stock.

(f) Transfer Restrictions Under Federal and State Securities Laws. Any Transfer of Preferred Stock or Common Stock is subject to the requirement that either:

(i) such shares have been registered for sale under applicable federal and state securities laws or

(ii) the Corporation has received a legal opinion that such registration is not required. Any Transfer in violation of this requirement shall be void ab initio and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

SECTION 3.8. Conversion of Common Stock or Preferred Stock into Excess Stock. Notwithstanding the other provisions contained in this Article III, whenever there is a purported Transfer of shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which is void ab initio as a result of the application of Section 3.7, then the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock purportedly being Transferred (rounded up to the nearest whole share) in violation of Section 3.7 shall be automatically converted into, with no further action required, an equal number of shares of Excess Stock. Such conversion shall be effective as of the close of business on the business day prior to the date of the purported transfer.

SECTION 3.9. Remedies for Breach of Transfer Restrictions. If the Board of Directors or its designees shall at any time determine in good faith that a Transfer has taken place or has been attempted in violation of Section 3.7 or that a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire beneficial ownership (determined without reference to any rules of attribution), Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of any shares of the Corporation in violation of Section 3.7, the Board of Directors or its designees shall take such actions as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer, including, but not limited to, refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Corporation or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer; provided, however, that any Transfer or attempted Transfer in violation of Section 3.7 shall automatically result in the conversion described in Section 3.8, irrespective of any action (or non-action) by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.10. Remedies Not Limited. Nothing contained in this Article III shall limit the authority of the Board of Directors to take such other action as it deems necessary or advisable to protect the Corporation and the interests of its shareholders by preservation of the Corporation's status as a real estate investment trust under the REIT provisions of the Code.

SECTION 3.11. Ambiguity. In the case of an ambiguity in the application of any of the provisions of this Article III, or any definition contained in Section 1.4, the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the application of such provisions with respect to any situation based on the facts known to it.

SECTION 3.12. Legend. Each certificate for Common Stock and Preferred Stock shall bear the following legend:

"The shares of stock represented by this certificate are subject to restrictions on transfer for the purpose of the Corporation's maintenance of its status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Any Person who attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in violation of such restrictions must immediately notify the Corporation. Capitalized terms in this legend have the meanings defined in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, a copy of which, including the restrictions on transfer, will be sent without charge to each shareholder who so requests. If the restrictions on transfer are violated, any such transfer shall be void ab initio and the shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock represented hereby will be automatically converted into shares of Excess Stock which will be held in Trust by the Corporation.

The shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any applicable state securities laws. Such shares may not be sold or transferred in the absence of such registration or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the issuer that such registration is not required by said act or laws."

SECTION 3.13. Treatment of Excess Stock.

(a) Ownership in Trust. Upon any purported Transfer that results in Excess Stock pursuant to Section 3.8, such Excess Stock shall be deemed to have been transferred to the Corporation, as Trustee of a Trust for the exclusive benefit of such Beneficiary or Beneficiaries to whom an interest in such Excess Stock may later be transferred pursuant to Section 3.13(b). Shares of Excess Stock so held in trust shall be issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation. The Purported Record Transferee shall have no rights in such Excess Stock except the right to designate a transferee of such Excess Stock upon the terms specified in Section 3.13(b). The Purported Beneficial Transferee shall have no rights in such Excess Stock except as provided in Section 3.13(b).

(b) Restrictions on Transfer; Designation of Beneficiary.

(i) Excess Stock shall not be transferable. The Purported Record Transferee may freely designate a Beneficiary of an interest in the Trust (representing the number of shares of Excess Stock held by the Trust attributable to a purported Transfer that resulted in the Excess Stock), if (1) the shares of Excess Stock held in the Trust would not be Excess Stock in the hands of such Beneficiary and (2) the Purported Beneficial Transferee does not receive a price for designating such Beneficiary that reflects a price per share for such Excess Stock that exceeds (x) the price per share such Purported Beneficial Transferee paid for the Common Stock or Preferred Stock in the purported Transfer that resulted in the Excess Shares, or (y) if the Purported Beneficial Transferee did not give value for such Excess Shares (through a gift, devise or other transaction), a price per share equal to the Market Price on the date of the purported Transfer that resulted in Excess Stock. Upon such transfer of an interest in the Trust, the corresponding shares of Excess Stock in the Trust shall be automatically exchanged for an equal number of shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, whichever the shares were prior to conversion to Excess Stock, and such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall be transferred of record to the transferee of the interest in the Trust if such Common Stock or Preferred Stock would not be Excess Stock in the hands of such transferee. Prior to any transfer of any interest in the Trust, the Purported Record Transferee must give advance notice to the Corporation of the intended transfer and the Corporation must have waived in writing its purchase rights under Section 3.13(c). In the event the Purported Record Transferee shall not designate a Beneficiary of an interest in the Trust in accordance with this Section 3.13(b)(i) within one hundred eighty (180) days after the date of the purported Transfer that results in Excess Stock, then the Corporation as Trustee shall transfer such interest in the Trust to the Person who initially transferred the Common Stock or Preferred Stock which converted to the Excess Stock and immediately thereafter the corresponding shares of Excess Stock in the Trust shall be automatically exchanged for an equal number of shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock, as the case may be, such that the initial transferor shall become the record owner of such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Purported Beneficial Transferee receives a price for designating a Beneficiary of an interest in the Trust that exceeds the amounts allowable under Section 3.13(b)(i), such Purported Beneficial Transferee shall pay, or cause such Beneficiary to pay, such excess to the Corporation.

(c) Purchase Right in Excess Stock. Beginning on the date of the occurrence of a Transfer which results in Excess Shares, such shares of Excess Stock shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to the Corporation, or its designee, at a price per share equal to the lesser of (i) the price per share in the transaction that created such Excess Stock (or, in the case of a devise or gift, the Market Price at the time of such devise or gift) and (ii) the Market Price on the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer. The Corporation shall have the right to accept such offer for a period of ninety days after the later of (i) the date of the Transfer which resulted in such Excess Shares and (ii) the date the Board of Directors determines in good faith that a Transfer which resulted in Excess Shares has occurred, if the Corporation does not receive a notice of such Transfer pursuant to Section 3.6.

SECTION 3.14. Owners Required to Provide Information.

(a) Every Beneficial Owner of more than one-half of one percent (or such lower percentage as may be required from time to time by the Treasury Regulations) of the outstanding Common Equity Stock and Common Preferred Stock of the Corporation shall, within 30 days after January 1 of each year, give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such Beneficial Owner, the number of shares Beneficially owned, and description of how such shares are held. Each such Beneficial Owner shall provide to the Corporation such additional information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Beneficial Ownership on the Corporation's status as a REIT.

(b) Each Person who is a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner of Common Stock or Preferred Stock and each Person (including the shareholder of record) who is holding Common Stock or Preferred Stock for a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner shall provide to the Corporation such information that the Corporation may request, in good faith, in order to determine the Corporation's status as a REIT.
