The seal of the State of Florida is circular. It features a central figure of a woman standing on a rock, holding a torch in her right hand and a scroll in her left. The scroll contains the word 'CONSTITUTION'. Above her is a palm tree. The outer ring of the seal contains the text 'GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA' at the top and 'IN GOD WE TRUST' at the bottom.

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem. This involves gathering information about the situation and the people involved. It is important to understand the context and the impact of the problem.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to analyze it. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, more manageable parts. It is important to understand the causes of the problem and the factors that are contributing to it.

3. After analyzing the problem, the next step is to develop a plan. This involves identifying the goals and objectives of the intervention and determining the steps that need to be taken to achieve them. It is important to consider the resources available and the potential barriers to success.

4. The final step in the process is to implement the plan. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring the progress. It is important to be flexible and responsive to changes in the situation.

5. Once the plan has been implemented, the next step is to evaluate the results. This involves assessing the impact of the intervention and determining whether the goals and objectives have been achieved. It is important to gather feedback from the people involved and to use this information to inform future interventions.

6. The final step in the process is to disseminate the findings. This involves sharing the results of the intervention with the relevant stakeholders and the wider community. It is important to communicate the findings in a clear and concise manner and to provide practical advice on how to address similar problems in the future.
