ARTICLE IX

The following indemnification provisions shall be deemed to be contractual in nature and not subject to retroactive removal or reduction by amendment.

(a) This corporation shall indemnify any director who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, judicial, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he/she is or was serving at the request of this corporation as a director or officer or member of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgment, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he/she acted in good faith or in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of this corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he/she had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of this corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matters as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of all the circumstances of the case. Termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, condition, or in a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of any action, suite or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the director, officer, employee or agent met the applicable standard of conduct.

(b) The corporation shall also indemnify any director or officer who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action suit, or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him/her connection therewith, without the necessity of an independent determination that such director or officer met any appropriate standard of conduct.

(c) The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such persons.

(d) In addition to the indemnification provided for herein, the corporation shall have power to make any other or further indemnification, except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly adopted by the Board of Directors, or duly authorized by a majority of the shareholders.

ARTICLE X

No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, that the foregoing clause shall not apply to any liability of a director for any action for which the Florida General Corporation Act proscribes this limitation and then only to the extent that this limitation is specifically proscribed.

ARTICLE XI

In furtherance, and not in limitation, of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

(a) To make, alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the corporation, subject to the power of the holders of stock having voting power to alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws made by the Board of Directors.

(b) To determine and fix the value of any property to be acquired by the corporation and to issue and pay in exchange therefore, stock of the corporation; and the judgment of the directors in determining such value shall be conclusive.

(c) To set apart out of any funds of the corporation available for dividends, a reserve or reserves for working capital or for any other lawful purposes, and also to abolish any such reserve in the same manner in which it was created.

(d) To determine from time to time whether and to what extent, and at what time and places, and under what conditions and regulations the accounts and books of the corporation, or any of the books, shall be open for inspection by the shareholders and no shareholder shall have any right to inspect any account or books or document of the corporation except as conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, unless and until authorized to do so by resolution of the Board of Directors or of the shareholders.

(e) The Board of Directors may, by resolution, provide for the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates.

ARTICLE XII

If the By-Laws so provide, the shareholders and the Board of Directors of the corporation shall have the power to hold their meetings to have an office or offices, and to keep the books of the corporation, subject to the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, outside of said state at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

The corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon the Board of Directors in addition to those granted by these Articles of Incorporation, and in addition to the powers and authority expressly conferred upon them by the laws of the State of Florida.

Election of directors need not be by ballot unless the By-Laws so provide.

Directors shall be entitled to reasonable fees for their attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII

In case the corporation enters into contracts or transacts business with one or more of its directors, or with any firm of which one or more of its directors are members, or with any other corporation or association of which one or more of its directors are shareholders, directors, or officers, such contracts or transactions shall not be invalidated or in any way affected by the fact that such director or directors have or may have an interest therein which is or might be adverse to the interest of this corporation, provided that such contracts or transactions are in the usual course of business.

In the absence of fraud, no contract or other transaction between this corporation and any other corporation or any individual or firm, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of this corporation is interested in such contract or transaction provided that such interest shall be fully disclosed or otherwise known to the Board of Directors in the meeting of such Board at which time such contract or transaction was authorized or confirmed, and provided, however, that any such directors of this corporation who are so interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of this corporation which shall authorize or confirm such contract or transaction and any such director may vote thereon to authorize any such contract or transaction with the like force and effect as if he were not such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

ARTICLE XIV

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred herein upon shareholders, directors and officers are subject to this reserved power.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, have hereunto duly executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation to be filed in the Office of Secretary of the State of Florida for the purposes therein set forth, this 28th day of February, 2005.
