RE: Annual report/reinstatement for doc# P05000056638

To Whom It May Concern:

I am submitting this request along with a check for the original sum of $150.00 (one hundred-fifty dollars) to bring our corporation and its status up to date. We had tried making changes to our business bank account only to find that our corporation is in an inactive status. I addressed this issue by contacting your offices and speaking with a yearly reports representative. He advised me that your offices had never received our original filing back in February of 2006. As it is evident that the postal system had failed to deliver the documentation, I was advised to submit another filing in the manner of a reinstatement with the original filing fee amount. Our company never received any notices sent by your offices. I was advised that because of this, there will be no assessment of late fees of any kind, therefore, only the original filing fee amount of $150 is required. Please review and file this documentation so that our company and corporation may continue doing business accordingly.

Sincerely,

David C. Cornell
Chief Executive Officer/President
