Florida, 33327-1456

ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

The objects and purposes for which the Corporation is formed are:

To purchase and sell, at wholesale and retail, and to repair and maintain, to manufacture, assemble and distribute jewelry and gift items of any kind;

To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every sort and kind with any person, firm, association, or corporation, private, public or municipal or body politic, or with the government of the United States, or any state, district, territory, or dependency thereof, or with any foreign government;

To engage in any commercial, industrial, agricultural or other type of enterprise, calculated or designed to promote, directly or indirectly, the interests of the Corporation;

To do any and all things necessary, suitable or convenient and proper for the accomplishment, attainment and furtherance of any one or more of the purposes, objects and powers herein set forth, and to do and perform any and every other act which is incidental or appurtenant thereto or connected therewith, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the business, protection or benefit of the Corporation; and GENERALLY, to do or perform or engage in any or all things, enterprises or vocations to the same extent as a natural person might or could do, and to the extent such transactions are such of any lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida. The enumeration of objects or purposes specified in any paragraph of this Third Article shall not be deemed or construed to exclude or in any way limit or restrict by inference any powers, objects or purposes which this Corporation is empowered to exercise, whether expressly by force of the laws of the State of Florida, now or hereafter in effect, or impliedly by any reasonable construction of said laws.

The Corporation shall also have the power to conduct its business in all its branches, have one or more offices, and unlimitedly to hold, purchase, mortgage and convey real and personal property in any state, district, territory, possession or dependency of the United States, and in any foreign country or place.

ARTICLE IV - CAPITAL STOCK

This Corporation is authorized to issue a total of
