Dear Sir/Madam

I am doing business as Marba International of Palm Harbor, Inc. I will be appointing a new Registered Agent for my corporation as my previous agent passed away at the end of 2006. Mr. Jay Garrard served my corporation well. He would follow up on filing all the necessary documents each and every year. I didn't learn of his passing until recently and understand that there is a timely filing period. Because of this unfortunate incident, my filing the 2007 Annual Report is late. Therefore, I was hoping that you would take into consideration the dilemma I'm faced with. I have been trying to get my business off the ground and a filing fee of one hundred and fifty dollars is something that I can handle at this point and time.

Thank You for your consideration.

Fondly,
Marita Bartolome
