Dear Ms. Cunningham:

We recently discovered from our accountant that the letter mailed to us by your office was not an approval of our Corporation, but rather a need for date change. We gave the paperwork to the accountant, and due to tax season, she simply set it aside until now.

We were unaware that any action needed taken until she called. We respectfully request acceptance of the enclosed paperwork. We realize that we are past the 60 days but request leniency in this matter. We have never incorporated a business in the past and totally relied on the professionals for assistance. We will use more diligence in the future. You have kept our check for $78.75 and we hope that you will accept this apology and request.

Sincerely,

Robin W. Cook
