3615 S. Florida Avenue
Suite 850

Article VI - Qualification of Directors

No director of the Corporation shall be deemed to have duly qualified as such unless he shall be the holder of record of one or more of the shares of the Corporation entitled to voting power. Should any director of the Corporation cease to hold of record one or more such shares, his office as director shall be vacant and the director shall sever all employment with, and financial interest in, the Corporation forthwith.

Article IX - Death or Disqualification of Officer, Shareholder or Director

If any officer, shareholder or director of this Corporation who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within this state or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon his continued rendering of such professional services, he shall sever all employment with, and financial interest in, this Corporation forthwith. Any transfer of shares shall be in accordance with Article X provided below.

Article X - Restriction Upon Transfer of Shares

1. Before there can be a valid sale or transfer of any of the shares of the Corporation by a holder thereof, such holder shall first give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation of his intention to sell or transfer such shares. Such notice shall specify the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the price per share, and the terms upon which such holder intends to make such sale or transfer. The Corporation then shall have the right of first refusal as to the total number of shares being offered for sale.

2. If the Corporation shall fail to exercise such right of first refusal within ten days after the first notice, the Secretary shall, within five days thereafter, mail or deliver a copy of such notice to each of the other shareholders of record of the Corporation. Such notice may be delivered to such shareholders personally or may be mailed to the last known address of such shareholders, as the same may appear on the books of the Corporation. Within 15 days after the mailing or delivering of such notices, any such shareholder or shareholders desiring to acquire any part or all of the shares referred to in such notice shall deliver by mail or otherwise to the Secretary of the Corporation a written offer or offers, expressed to be acceptable immediately, to purchase a specified number or numbers of such shares at the price and upon the terms stated in such notice, accompanied by the purchase price therefore with authorization to pay such purchase price against delivery of such shares.

3. If the total number of shares specified in such offer or offers shall exceed the number of shares referred to in such notice, each offering shareholder shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of the shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary, as the number of shares of the Corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all such shareholders desiring to purchase the shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary.

4. If all of the shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary shall not be disposed of under such apportionment, each shareholder desiring to purchase shares in a number in excess of his proportionate share, as provided in the foregoing paragraph 3, shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of those shares which remain thus undisposed of, as the total number of shares which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all of the shareholders desiring to purchase shares in excess of those to which they are entitled under such apportionment.

5. If one or more of the shareholders shall offer to purchase in the aggregate less than all of the shares or shall fail to offer to purchase any of the shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary, then the Corporation may purchase such shares upon the same terms. If the Corporation shall fail to offer to purchase the shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary, then the shareholder desiring to transfer or sell may dispose of any shares not purchased by the Corporation or other shareholder or shareholders to any other person or persons licensed and eligible to be a shareholder in this Corporation; provided, however, that he shall not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in such notice to the Secretary.

6. If the Corporation or any combination of shareholders and/or the Corporation shall fail to offer to purchase less than the total amount of shares referred to in such notice to the Secretary, then the shareholder desiring to transfer or sell such shares may at his election refuse to sell or transfer any shares to the Corporation or its shareholders and may transfer or sell his shares to any other person or persons licensed and eligible to be a shareholder in this Corporation; provided, however, that he may not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in such notice to the Secretary.

7. Any sale or transfer, or purported sale or transfer, of the shares of the Corporation shall be null and void unless the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Article X are strictly observed and followed.
