Dear Sir/Madam:

In response to your correspondence I would like to state that I never received a notification from you, about the renovation of my Corporation. I found about it thru my accountant who called me and ask me why I had not done so. I explained to her that I have never received any communication from you. She asked me to stop by her office to fill out the report and send it to you with the required amount of money, which was $150.00.

As you can see in the enclosed "2006 for profit corporation reinstatement" form, we did it on October 09, 2006 and at the moment I took the opportunity to change my address with your department.

Now you are claiming that you never received the form, only the money and I'm wondering, if you never received the annual report form together with my payment, how do you have my new address? I think you did receive the annual report with the money, but somehow you misplaced form and now you can't find it.

Please, accept this new copy of the original annual report I send you back on Oct.09, 2006 with my payment of $150.00, since I never received any communications from you and you misplaced the report form when I filed.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention to this critical matter, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
CABRERA'S REPAIR SERVICES, INC
