Dear Sirs:

We recently received a Notice of Intent to Dissolve our corporation for failure to file an Annual Report. We did file a report on April 5, 2005 and you deposited our filing fee check in the amount of $150.00 on April 21, 2006 (copy attached). Upon inquiry through your internet service, we were informed that you sent us a letter dated April 20 and returned our original report because we did not provide our FEI number (e-mail correspondence attached). We never received that letter. We were unaware of any problem until we received the Notice of Intent to Dissolve. I called your department to find out how to handle this so we would not be charged a late fee. They advised us to submit a new Annual Report and note that we did not receive your letter informing us that there was a problem.

Accordingly, enclosed please find our Annual Report. You already have our $150 filing fee as noted above and we request that you waive the late fee due to the fact that we never received your letter or our original report for correction.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Andres

No, not if you let the Annual Report Section know you did not receive their letter.

An additional question, will we be held liable for the $400 fee? We filed timely, did not receive your letter dated 4/20/06, and just received the Notice to Dissolve. We had our FEI number at the time of filing so it was simply a matter of providing that number to you. We would appreciate your consideration to not charge us the late fee especially since you cashed our check on 4/21 which was prior to the deadline for filing and therefore our payment was timely made.

Thank you,
Elizabeth Andres

Thank you for your response. You are correct, we did not enter the FEI number (we do have one) so it was an error on our part.

We did not receive the letter you are referring to. Could you please advise on how to get that information to you? We appreciate your assistance.
