Dear Sirs,

I am very concerned regarding the status of this incorporation. I called your staff the second week of May, and told them I was not notified of the requirement, and I was unable to download the forms on my computer. There are many items that I cannot download...your employee said that was all right, took my information and said he would put it in the system to send me the forms, that it would take about 6 weeks,. I waited for the forms, and never got them. The next time I called to follow up, a lady answered and said that I was already in the system and I should just wait for my forms. I asked her to note my phone calls you would know that we were following up. She said they got too many phone calls to note them in the files, and just to wait for the forms to come in the mail.

The forms never came. We had someone work on the computer, and I was able to try to electronically file. I am sending you my forms, and you can see that I tried to pay with them by my 2 different VISA cards, and the system would not accept the cards. It said that the information did not match up with your information. I would think that is because our attorney might have used his card in the past, and I don't have his card #. So...I am sending you a check instead, overnight mail...you can see that I am trying to keep the incorporation.

Thank you for working with me on this.

Sincerely

Barbara Nelson
