ARTICLE III SHARES

Section 1. Shares: The total number of shares, which the Corporation shall have authority to issue, is ten thousand (10,000) shares, all of which shall be without nominal or par value. There shall be one class of common stock, each with a $.10 par value.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number: This Corporation shall be managed by no more than (2) directors. All shareholders shall compose the Board of Directors. The number of directors and shareholders may be increased by amendment to these articles.

Section 2. Functions: All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of a Board of Directors. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which shall be the chief policy making body of this corporation. Members of the Board of Directors shall elect a Chair and a Vice -Chair. The chair shall preside at all meetings of the Board of directors. The viceChair shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors in the absence of the Chair, and where circumstances cause the Chairperson to vacate the chair.

Section 3. Qualifications: Directors need not be residents of the United States, but must be shareholders in the corporation.

Section 4. Compensation: The Board of Directors shall have authority to determine the compensation of the Chairman or any officer when the Board deems compensation necessary.

Section 5. Duties of Directors: A Director shall, in good faith, perform duties as a director, including duties as a member of any committee of the Board upon which he/she may serve, and in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

In performing duties, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(a) officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(b) counsel, public accounts or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence, or

(c) a committee of the board, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he/she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance described above to be unwarranted.

A director who performs duties in compliance with this section shall have no liability by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation

Section 6. Presumption of Assent: A director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of its directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless he votes against such or abstains from voting in respect thereto because of an asserted conflict of interest.

Section 7. Election and Term: At the first annual meeting of the Directors (shareholders), which shall take place during December, but not later than March 1, and at each annual or biannual meeting thereafter, the Directors (shareholders) shall elect a chairman. The chair shall hold office until a successor shall have been elected or until resignation, removal from office or death.

Section 8. Vacancies: Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including any vacancy created by reason of a decrease in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors.

Section 9. Removal of Directors: At a meeting of directors (shareholders) called expressly for that purpose, any director may be removed, when in the best interest of the corporation a majority of the remaining directors (shareholders) deem removal necessary. However, such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract or director's rights.

Section 10. Quorum & Voting: A majority of the number of the directors fixed by these articles shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of the majority of the directors present (either in person or via telephone), at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 11. Regular Meetings: A regular meeting of the Directors shall be in December of each year. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a regular meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 12. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the Directors may be called by the Chairman or a majority of the Directors. The person or persons authorized to call a special meeting of the directors may fix the place for holding any special meeting of the directors called by them. Members of the Board of directors may participate in a special meeting of the Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Subsection 12.1. Emergency meeting: Emergency meetings of the directors may be called by the Chairman or by a majority of the directors. The person or persons authorized to call an emergency meeting of the directors may fix the place for holding any special meeting of the directors called by them. Members of the Board of directors may participate in an emergency meeting of the Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 13. Notice: Written notice of the time and place of the Special Meeting(s) of Directors shall be given to each director by personal delivery or by mail, telegram, or cablegram at least five days before the meeting. Notice need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting and waiver of any and all objections to the place of the meeting, any objection to transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. The business to be transacted and the purpose of any special meeting of the directors shall be specified in the written waiver of notice.

Subsection 13.1. Notice of Emergency Meetings: Notice of the time and place of Emergency Meetings of Directors shall be given to each director either by personal delivery, telegram or cablegram at least twenty-four (24) hours before the meeting. Emergency notice need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice either before or after the meeting. Attendance of a director at any emergency meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting and waiver of any and all objections to the place of the meeting, any objection to transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. The business to be transacted and the purpose of any emergency meeting of the directors shall be specified in the written waiver of notice. Written confirmation of the meeting shall be presented to each Director at the time and place of the meeting.

Section 14. Action Without a Meeting: any action required to be taken at a meeting of the directors of a corporation, on any action which may be at a meeting of the directors or a committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, signed by all of the directors, or all the members of the committee, as the case may be, is filed in minutes or the proceedings of the board or of the committee. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers: The officers of this corporation shall be the President, vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors at its meeting in December. These two individuals shall comprise the Executive Committee. The same person may hold any two or more offices. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and appointed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Duties of Officers: The officers of this corporation shall have the following duties any other duties specified by the Board of Directors:

1. THE PRESIDENT/CEO shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, shall have general "and active" management of the business and affairs of the corporation subject to the directions of the Board of Directors and shall preside at all executive committee meetings. The President shall also serve as Executive Secretary of the Board of Directors.
2. THE VICE PRESIDENT shall be an executive officer and preside at meetings of the corporation in the President's absence, and where circumstances cause the President to vacate the office. When the Vice President is presiding, he or she shall assume all the duties, responsibilities, and rights of President.
3. THE SECRETARY shall be responsible for the minutes, correspondence, and records of the corporation; shall mail all notices of meetings of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee; and shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the President, and the Vice President.
4. THE TREASURER shall have custody of, and maintain all corporate funds and financial records; shall mail copies of financial statements to each shareholder quarterly; shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements and render accounts thereof at the annual and special meetings of the Board of Directors (shareholders) and Executive Committee.

Section 3. Removal: The Board of Directors shall remove any officer or agent whenever in their judgment the best interest of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract or shareholder's rights, if any, of the person so removed.

ARTICLE VI STANDING AND AD HOC COMMITTEE

Section 1. Selection of Standing Committee: Standing and Ad Hoc Committees may be established by the Board of Directors as needed to further the purpose of the Corporation. The Board, by resolution, may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may act in the place and stead of any absent member or members at any meeting of such committee having a quorum. The Chairman of each committee, except the Executive Committee, shall be chosen by a majority of the members of the committee.

Section 2. The Executive Committee: The Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full Board of Directors, shall designate an executive committee that shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. The composition of the Executive Committee shall include President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Regular meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held as many times as necessary to conduct the business of the Corporation, but no fewer than four (4) times a year. The President shall call and reside over all Executive Committee meetings. Emergency meetings of the Executive Committee shall also be called by the President or Chairman of the Board of Directors or upon the direction of the majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Financial Committee: A financial committee shall be established by the Board of Directors to study and review fund raising possibilities in the name of and for the benefit of the corporation. The Executive Committee subject to approval from the Board of Directors will specify the membership, duties, and responsibilities of this committee.

ARTICLE VII CERTIFICATE FOR SHARES

Section 1. Issuance: Every holder of shares in this corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, representing all shares to which he is entitled. No certificate shall be issued for any share until such is fully paid.

Section 2. Form: Certificates representing shares of the corporation shall be signed by the President and Secretary or by such other officers authorized by the Board of Directors under the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or facsimile thereof. All certificates shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified. All certificates representing shares shall state upon the face thereof: The name of the corporation; that the corporation is organized under the laws of the State of Florida; the name of the persons whom issued; the number and class of shares and designation of series, if any, which such certificate represents; the par value of each share represented by such certificate or a statement that the shares are without par value.

Section 3. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates: The corporation shall issue a new stock certificate in place of any certificate issued if the holder or record of the certificate (a) makes proof in affidavit form that it has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken; (b) gives bond in such form as the corporation may direct, to indemnify the corporation, the transfer agent, and registrar against any claim that may be made on account of the alleged loss, destruction, or theft of a certificate; and (c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the corporation.

Section 4. Transfer of Shares: Upon surrender to the corporation or the transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate for shares fully endorse or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, and cancel the old certificate; every such transfer shall be entered on the transfer book of the corporation which shall be kept at its principal office. The corporation shall issue a new stock certificate in place of any certificate previously issued if the holder of record of the certificate requests the issue before the corporation has notice that a certificate has been acquired by a purchaser for a value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim.

The corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record on any share as the holder in fact thereof, and accordingly, shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as expressly provided by the laws of the State of Florida. In the event a shareholder wishes to sell his/her shares in the corporation, members of the corporation shall have first rights of refusal. A shareholder may sell his/her shares to any shareholder or groups of shareholders.

ARTICLE VIII MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting: There shall be an annual meeting of the shareholders of this corporation. A simple majority shall constitute a quorum. Business transacted at the annual meeting shall include the election of officers of the corporation. The chairman of the Board shall preside at the annual meeting of the shareholders.

Section 2. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the shareholders shall be held when directed by the Board of Directors, the President, or when requested in writing by the holders of not less than ten percent of all shares entitled to vote at the meeting. A meeting requested by shareholders shall be called for a date not less than fourteen (14) and no more sixty (60) days before after the request is made, unless the shareholders requesting the meeting designate a later date. The call for the meeting shall be issued by the Secretary, unless the Board of directors, the President, or shareholders requesting the meeting shall designate another person to do so.

Section 3. Place: Meetings of shareholders may be held within or outside of the United States. If no designation is made, the place of the meeting shall be the registered office of the corporation.

Section 4. Notice: Written certified notice—with return requested—setting the place, day, and hour of the meeting an, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than fourteen (14) and no more than sixty (60) days before the meeting, either personally or by first class mail, by or at the direction of the President, the Secretary, or the officer persons calling the meeting to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at this/her address as it appears on the stock books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

Section 5. Notice of Adjourned Meetings: When a meeting is adjourned to another place or time, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the place and time to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. If, however after the adjournment the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in this section to each shareholder of record on the new record date entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 6. Closing of Transfer Books and fixing Record Date: For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other purpose, the Board of Directors may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period not to exceed, in any case sixty (60) days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least fourteen (14) days immediately preceding such meeting.

In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date as the record date for any determination, such date in any case to be not more than sixty (60) days and, in case of the meeting of shareholders, not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of shareholders is to be taken.

If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for determination of shareholders entitled to notice or to vote at a meeting of the shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed, or the date on which the resolution of the Board of Directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders.

When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof, unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 7. Voting Record: The officers or agent having charge of the stock books for shares of the corporation shall make, at least fourteen (14) days before the meeting of the shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meetings or adjournment thereof, with the address of and the number and class and series, if any, of shares held by each. The list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the transfer agent or registrar of the corporation and any shareholder shall be entitled to inspect the list at any time during usual business hours. The list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subjected to the inspection of any shareholder at any time during the meeting.

If the requirements of this section have not been substantially complied with, the meeting demand of any shareholder in person or by proxy, shall be adjourned until the requirements are complied with. If no such demand is made, failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

Section 8. Shareholder Quorum and Voting: A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. When a specified item of business is required to be voted on a class or series shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such item of business by class or series.

If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders unless otherwise provided by law.

After a quorum has been established at a shareholders' meeting, the subsequent withdrawal of shareholders, so as to reduce the number of shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting below the number required for a quorum, shall not affect the validity of any action taken at the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Section 9. Voting of Shares: Each shareholder entitled to vote in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by each shareholder. All other requirements as to voting trusts and shareholders' agreements shall be in accordance with the laws of Florida.

Section 10. Proxies: Every shareholder entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders or to express consent or dissent without a meeting or shareholders' duly authorized attorney-in-fact, any authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy.

The shareholder or his attorney-in-fact must sign every proxy. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the shareholder executing, it, except as otherwise provided by law.

The authority of the holder of a proxy to act shall not be revoked by the incompetence or death of the shareholder who executed the proxy unless, before the authority is exercised, written notice of an adjudication of such incompetence or such death is received by the corporation officer responsible for maintaining the list of shareholders.

If a proxy for the same shares confers authority upon two or more persons and does not otherwise provide, a majority of them present at the meeting, or if only one is present then that one, may exercise all the powers conferred by the proxy; but if the proxy holders present at the meeting are equally divided as to the right and manner of voting in any particular case, the voting of such shares shall be prorated.

If a proxy expressly provides, any proxy holder may appoint in writing a substitute to act in his or her place.

Section 11. Action by shareholders Without a Meeting: Any action required by law, these Bylaws, or Articles of Incorporation of this corporation to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of the corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. If any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Within fourteen (14) days after obtaining such authorization by written consent, notice shall be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing. The notice shall fairly summarize the material features of the authorized action and, if the action be merger, consolidation or sale or exchange of assets for which dissenters rights are provided under this act, the notice shall contain a clear statement of the right of shareholders dissenting there from to be paid the fair value of the shares upon compliance with further provisions of this act regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders.

ARTICLE IX BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 1. Books and Records: This Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of accounts and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Board of Directors (shareholders), Executive Committee, standing and ad hoc committee meetings upon the terms and conditions provided by law.

Section 2. Audit of financial Records: All financial records and accounts owned by this Vivco Enterprises, Inc. shall be audited when a majority of the Board of directors (shareholders) deems an audit necessary. At such time, the audit shall be conducted by independent auditor(s) not associated with this corporation. The auditor(s) shall be selected and hired by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X RULES OF ORDER

Section 1. Rules: The most recent version of Robert's Rules of Order shall be the parliamentary authority for all proceedings of the Corporation, unless otherwise specified in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Procedure: These articles may be amended by affirmative votes of two-thirds (2/3) of the shareholders in the Corporation at any duly called meeting of the Directors (shareholders). Written notice of any proposed amendments shall be sent to all members no later than fifteen (15) working days prior to the meeting at which the proposed amendment shall be considered.
