I am writing this not to you because I sent the annual fees to keep my corporation active for the year 2007, but noticed that the payment for 2006 was never sent. I also noticed that the corporation appears as inactive. I never received the notice stating that I needed to pay any such fee during 2006, I am assuming this happened because this corporation was activated late in 2005, and for some reason your system never revealed that I needed to receive such notice. All I wish to do is pay the $150.00 fee that I was never told I had to pay, and get my corporation activated once again. Along with this letter, I am sending that payment. Please notify me promptly as to the resolution of this matter. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Nuris Fernandez,
President
