To whom it may concern:

My business is new as of September of 2005. due to the hurricanes last season in south Florida, the business didn't actually get off the ground until November of 2005. I never received an annual report in January, and had know idea that I needed to file one until recently. The summer season is quite slow here, and coming up with 550.00 is next to impossible. I have just found out by one of your agents that the report was due by May 1st for 150.00. Since I did not receive the notice prior to 60 days ago, could you please waive the 400.00 late fee. Enclosed is a check for 150.00

Thank you,
Lisa Durda, pres
