12. Voting for directors. At an election of directors, each common shareholder is entitled to one vote for each common share such shareholder owns. The votes of any shareholder may be allocated to one or more candidates for director as such shareholder sees fit. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors. The candidates for director who receive the most votes at an election meeting at which all shareholders are present shall be elected as such. For example, if n directors must be elected, the n candidates receiving the most votes shall be elected.

13. Self-Dealing. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation shall be affected by the fact that any director of the Corporation is interested in, or is a director or officer of, such other corporation. affected by the fact that any director of the Corporation is a party or in any way connected with such person, firm, or corporation. Every director of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association, or corporation in which he may be in any way interested.

14. Preemptive Rights. The shareholders shall have all preemptive rights, as recognized in law, to subscribe for and purchase from the Corporation any stock of the Corporation now or to be authorized, or to purchase any bonds, certificates of indebtedness, debentures, notes, obligations, or other securities, which the Corporation may at any time issue, if the same shall be convertible into stock of the Corporation or shall entitle the owner or holder to purchase stock of the Corporation.

15. Right of First Refusal. No shareholder may sell any of his shares in the corporation without first offering such shares to the other shareholders in proportion to their ownership interests (such ownership interests being determined by reference to all of the outstanding shares except for the shares being sold by the selling shareholder). The offering price for such shares shall be the same price which was or will be offered to the party who will purchase the shares if the non-selling shareholders do not exercise their rights under the preceding sentence.

16. Bylaws. The shareholders shall, as necessary, promulgate all appropriate bylaws to govern the internal operations of the Corporation. The power to promulgate bylaws is reserved to the shareholders; the incorporator shall not promulgate any initial bylaws.

17. Amendment. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by a majority of the Board of Directors, proposed by them to the shareholders, and approved at a shareholders' meeting by a two-thirds majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the directors and all the shareholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.
