Dear Pete & Maxine:

RE: Demand Letter
(Dissolution of Partnership)

Due to irreconcilable differences, I will be dissolving our current partnership for the operation of Tweet & Innocent Daycare. Because of the continuing problems that have been occurring between our current partnership and several unethical and unprofessional acts, I am demanding immediate corrective action with the following conditions attached:

- Enter into a new business partnership agreement that will allow me to have controlling interests of the business.
- With the new agreement, there will be specific terms that will require that your part of the partnership involves absolutely no involvement in the day-to-day operations of the business.
- No contact with the operational staff, clients (parents and children) unless I personally give you permission to do so.
- Your new role with the new agreement will be a "Silent Partner" only. With specific instructions to stay away from the operational facilities unless you have my permission.

Upon receipt of this demand letter, you will have 24 hours to respond favorably to the above-mentioned demands. If you don't respond favorably to my requests, our current partnership will be dissolved immediately. There will be no further negotiations after the 24 hour deadline.

Sincerely,

Ella Glover-Powell
