Melbourne, Florida 32935

ARTICLE II

Existence of Corporation

This corporation shall begin existence upon the filing of the Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE III

Purpose

The purpose of this CORPORATION is to engage in any lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida. Specifically, to engage in the business of rendering professional legal services to the public including every phase and aspect of such business and to perform all acts and do all things which are or would be usual and incident to the practice of law and rendition of legal services by an attorney duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV

General Powers

The corporation shall have power:

(a) To have a corporate seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed, or in any other manner reproduced.

(b) To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein, wherever situated.

(c) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create a security interest in, lease exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(d) To lend money to, and use its credit to assist its officers and employees in accordance with Section 607.141, Florida Statutes.

(e) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(f) To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises and income.

(g) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(h) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this act within or without this State.

(i) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(j) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its Articles of Incorporation or with the laws of the State of Florida, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(k) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes.

(l) To transact any lawful business which the Board of Directors shall find will be in aid of governmental policy.

(m) To pay pensions and establish and carry out pension plans, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans, retirement plans, benefit plans and other incentive and compensation plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees and for any or all of the directors, officers, and employees of its subsidiaries.

(n) To provide insurance for its benefit on the life of any of its directors, officer or employees, or on the life of any shareholder for the purpose of acquiring at his death shares of its stock owned by the shareholder or by the spouse or children of the shareholder.

(o) To be a promoter, incorporator, general partner, limited partner, member, associate, or manager of any corporations, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

ARTICLE V

Director Conflict of Interest

(a) No contract or other transaction between Corporation and one or more of its directors, or between Corporation and any other corporation, firm, association, or other entity, in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers, or are financially interested in Corporation, shall be either void or voidable for this reason alone or by reason alone that such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board of directors or of a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction, or that his or their votes are counted for such purpose:

1. If the fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the board of committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction by vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors; or

2. If the fact that such common relationship or interest is disclosed to or known by the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve, or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

3. If the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is approved by the board, a committee or the shareholders.

(b) Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE VI Capital Stock

(a) The total number of shares of capital stock the corporation is authorized to issue is Ten Thousand [10,000] shares having a par value of $1.00 per share. Each of the said shares of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote at any meeting of the stockholders. All or part of said capital stock may be paid for in cash, in property or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation and valued at a fair valuation to be fixed by the Board of Directors at a meeting called for such purpose. All stock when issued shall be paid for and shall be nonassessable.
