ARTICLE XI

Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is, or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including appeals, unless he acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct. Determination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction shall not create a presumption that the person acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct. The determination of whether a person acted within the standard of conduct described above shall be made in one of the following manners:

- i. A majority vote of a quorum of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding; or
- ii. If a majority of the disinterested directors so requests, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
- iii. If a majority of the disinterested directors so requests, by a qualified independent arbitrator.

Success on the merits in defense of any action, suit or proceeding shall be determinative that the person acted within the necessary standard of conduct and no further determination shall be necessary.

Expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, upon a preliminary determination by the disinterested Board members that the person did not act with gross negligence or willful misconduct, upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such amount upon any ultimate determination that he acted with gross negligence or willful misconduct.

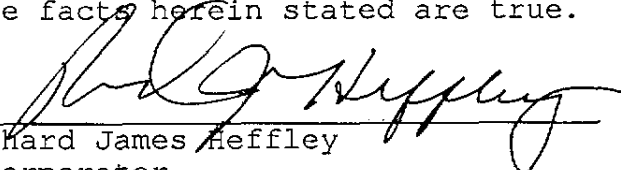

Indemnification as provided hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation, or is, or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of the status as such, whether or not the Corporation has the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provision of this section.

ARTICLE XII

This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment hereto, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, and any right conferred upon the shareholders is subject to this reservation.

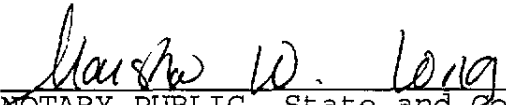

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned Incorporator, hereby set my hand and seal this 16th day of December, 2005, for the purpose of forming this Corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, and I hereby make and file in the Office of the Secretary of the State in the State of Florida the Certificates of Incorporation and certify that the facts herein stated are true.
