Attn: Mr. John Sean Toner

Letter # 207A00058393

Dear Mr. Toner,

As per our phone conversation this afternoon I'm sending you this letter explaining the reason why the annual report was filed after the "due date".

As you may notice there was a change of address and the corporation has a new location. We filed the change of address with the US Postal Service and when the Division of Corporations sent the annual report for us to file looks like the US Postal Service took a while sending the piece of mail to our new address because by the time we got it was already the 8th of September, 3 days past the "due date" September 5.

I thank you for reconsidering our case and look forward to hearing from you again soon.

Sincerely,

Jose Elasmár
